Sor Juana Gonzalez, Michelle A., 2014-04-10 Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz a seventeenth century Mexican nun is one of the most compelling figures of her age A prolific writer a learned scholar and the first woman theologian of the Americas she was also a defender of the dignity and rights of women in the midst of a fiercely patriarchal culture In this study Michelle Gonzalez examines Sor Juana's contributions as a foremother of many currents of contemporary theology In particular in joining aesthetics with the quest for truth and justice her work and witness suggest new avenues for Hispanic feminist and other liberation theologies Latin American Readings for a Cultural Age E. Santi, 2016-10-18 Gathered in one volume are seven of the best essays written in the last fifteen years or so by the eminent Latin Americanist Enrico Mario Sant. The essays cover a wide range of topics in Latin American poetry, narrative film and intellectual history and also explore Spanish Peninsular subject matter: the Spanish Generation of 98's response to Spain's loss of Cuba in the Spanish American War of 1898. The essays are introduced by a long text in which the author develops a bracing critique of some dominant trends in current critical practice and spells out an alternative methodology. The Living Church, 1998. Contemporary Cinema of Latin America. Deborah Shaw, 2003-03-15. This book focuses on a selection of internationally known Latin American films. The chapters are organized around national categories, grounding the readings not only in the context of social and political conditions but also in those of each national film industry. It is a very useful text for students of the region's cultural output as well as for students of film studies who wish to learn more about the innovative and often controversial films discussed.

Voices Long Silenced. Joy A. Schroeder, Marion Ann Taylor, 2022-02-15. Hundreds of women studied and interpreted the Bible between the years 100-2000 CE but their stories have remained largely untold. In this book, Schroeder and Taylor introduce readers to the notable contributions of female commentators through the centuries. They unearth fascinating accounts of Jewish and Christian women from diverse communities: rabbinic experts, nuns, mothers, mystics, preachers, teachers, suffragists, and household managers who interpreted Scripture through their writings. This book recounts the struggles and achievements of women who gained access to education and biblical texts. It tells the story of how their interpretive writings were preserved or all too often lost. It also explores how in many cases women interpreted Scripture differently from the men of their times. Consequently, Voices Long Silenced makes an important new contribution to biblical reception history. This book focuses on women's written words and briefly comments on women's interpretation in media such as music, visual arts, and textile arts. It includes short representative excerpts from diverse women's own writings that demonstrate noteworthy engagement with Scripture. Voices Long Silenced calls on scholars and religious communities to recognize the contributions of women past and present who interpreted Scripture, preached, taught, and exercised a wide variety of ministries in churches and synagogues.

The Resilient Apocalypse. Julia A. Kushigian, 2024-05. Portraits of good battling evil in the geography of hell come in many forms in the Hispanic World. Apocalyptic nightmares, frightful images of chaos and death are inclusive and interrelated yet simultaneously project an exceptional quality never seen or experienced before the mother of all battles. I am the only one who can fix it. This investigation explores how narrative logic may challenge unified notions of finalities when images remain unfulfilled in a proscribed End. By redeploying transglobal character and narrative potential, the Apocalypse suggests bewildering complexities as it trains its lens on New Beginnings. Here analysis explores resilient formulas for combating the End through resistance in Latin America, Spain, and Latin communities in the US. Whether revealed through gilded illustrations, messianic chronicles, poetry, Baroque letters, racially motivated novels, sexuality, and spirituality in film, or intimidating immigrant photos, apocalyptic examples explode notions of final moments. The Resilient Apocalypse ironically performs as both an internal defense a vehicle for mourning and a counter discourse to power a mechanism for resistance This study argues for a strategy that listens to and keeps the enemy in sight and in mind a method for grappling with and engaging difference by decolonizing the politics of the End It reformulates an incomplete mythical and uncanny narrative into a poetics of resistance with communal solutions and obligations When the Apocalypse is unremittingly sought after to impose social justice salvation and reason it paradoxically introduces future hope against itself In the works of Beato de Li bana Sor Juana In s de la Cruz Cirilo Villaverde Cristina Garc a Mart n Kohan Jennifer Maytorena Taylor Santiago Roncagliolo Alfonso Cuar n etc rival traditions internalize competing apocalyptic worldviews and arrive at sustainable plans of action for negotiating the afterward By bracketing the finality of the End and proposing a tension between conflict archaeology and the transcendence of opposition through renovation salvation or hope this study reveals how plural competing viewpoints of the End go a long way to legitimizing each other Ultimately The Resilient Apocalypse traces a compelling narrative theory of unfulfilled promise that forever changes the way we engage the other and value the self during intervals of fear
