Sorolla The Masterworks:

Sorolla: The Masterworks Blanca Pons-Sorolla, 2012-10-02 A new survey of the best works by the elusive and spectacular Spanish Impressionist Joaquín Sorolla. Often compared to his contemporary the American artist John Singer Sargent, Joaquín Sorolla (1863-1923) was a master draftsman and painter of landscapes, formal portraits and monumental, historically themed canvases. Highly influenced by French Impressionism, the Valencian artist was a master plein air painter known for his luminous seaside scenes of frolicking youths and for vivid depictions of Spanish rural life and its pleasures and customs. This beautifully designed and produced volume brings together one hundred of Sorolla's major paintings selected by his great granddaughter Blanca Pons-Sorolla, the foremost authority on the artist. Benefiting from close proximity to the artist and his personal archives, she presents an in-depth essay that explores Sorolla's life, work and remarkable international legacy. With virtually all of the artist's previous publications now out of print, this much anticipated volume is an important addition to the literature on this great Spanish master. Sorolla: Painted Gardens, 2019-04-23 Valencian master Sorolla's Impressionist paintings depict the most beautiful gardens and architecture in Spain. Like Claude Monet's celebrated plein air landscapes at Giverny, the series collected in this book represents among the best loved examples of Joaquín Sorolla's 1863-1923 work and a window into the Spanish painter's quest to capture the essence of a garden. Described by Monet as the master of light, Sorolla and his landscapes, formal portraits and historically themed canvases drew comparisons to contemporary American painter John Singer Sargent. Sorolla had achieved renown on both sides of the Atlantic for grand scenes of Spanish life when he began a personal series of garden works presented completely for the first time in this publication. Painted at the palaces of La Granja and the Alcázar in Seville, the Alhambra and Generalife in Granada and at the painter's home in Madrid, these Impressionist works allowed Sorolla to apply his signature loose brushwork and training as a photographer's lighting assistant to gardens and the sculptures, architecture and fountains that frame and animate them. Sorolla depicted reflections in fountains and pools, the sunlight dappling his glamorous sitters, sprays of orange blossoms and shaded blue and white tile as he endeavored to render the radiant peace of a summer afternoon. Joaquín Sorolla - the Paintings, 2017-06-25 The paintings of Spanish portrait and landscape artist Joaquín Sorolla y Bastida (27 February 1863 - 10 August 1923). Archer M. Huntington Patricia Fernández Lorenzo, 2024-12-20 At the turn of the twentieth century, New York City philanthropist, arts patron and scholar Archer M. Huntington became the foremost collector and face of Spanish art in the United States with the founding of the Hispanic Society of America. This organization, which served as a bridge between artists in Spain and wealthy patrons in the States, was the culmination of a lifetime of scholarship and passion for Spanish culture. For Huntington, one he would grapple with throughout his public and intellectual life. In Archer M. Huntington: Founder of the Hispanic Society of America, Patricia Fernández Lorenzo offers for the first time in English a complete biography of Huntington, tracing his enthusiasm for Spain and the arts from his childhood to his marriage to sculptor Anna Hyatt and his crisis of conscience in the wake of the violence of the Spanish Civil War Drawing heavily from Archer s correspondence and from Anna Hyatt Huntington s papers housed at Syracuse University Fern ndez Lorenzo offers a full deeply human portrait of one of the great patrons of Spanish art giving a comprehensive look at Huntington s role in defining Hispanicism in the United States
