, A French Song Companion Graham Johnson, Richard Stokes, 2000 A French Song Companion is an indispensable guide to the modern repertoire and the most comprehensive book of French melodie in any language. Noted accompanist Graham Johnson provides repertoire guides to the work of over 150 composers, the majority of them from France but including British, American, German, Spanish and Italian musicians who have written French vocal music. The book contains major articles on Faure, Duparc, Debussy, Ravel and Poulenc as well as essays on Bizet, Chabrier, Gounod, Chausson, Hahn and Satie and important reassessments of such composers as Massenet, Koehlin and Leguerney. The book combines these articles with the complete texts in English of over 700 songs, all translated by Richard Stokes, making it also a treasury of French poetry from the fifteenth through the twentieth centuries. The translations alone will prove invaluable to music lovers and performers; combined with the biographical articles, they become the ideal map for exploring this exciting and diverse repertoire.

Gaston Crunelle 1898-1990 was Professor of Flute at the Paris Conservatory from 1941 to 1969 and taught an entire generation of the world's leading flutists. A leading orchestral chamber music and solo flutist, his recordings are among the best of the 78 rpm and early LP eras. Gaston Crunelle and Flute Playing in Twentieth-Century France establishes Crunelle's place in history as one of the most important flutists of the twentieth century and shines light on musical life in France during his lifetime, from the silent film era through the German Occupation to the changes in music and education since 1968.

The Interpretation of French Song Pierre Bernac, 1997. First published in 1970. The interpretation of French song has become the classic work on the art of the melodie, indispensable to singers, accompanists and concertgoers alike. The author Pierre Bernac 1899-1979 was one of this century's most distinguished exponents of French song. His legendary duo with the composer Francis Poulenc lasted for 25 years, during which Poulenc composed over 90 songs specially for Bernac to sing. They toured together performing works not only by Poulenc but by all the great composers of the French melodic. On his retirement from the concert platform, Bernac continued to teach for a further 20 years, giving masterclasses throughout Europe, Canada and the USA. In this book, Bernac brings all his personal experience to bear on the understanding and performance of French song. Among the eighteen composers covered are Berlioz, Gounod, Duparc, Chausson, Fauré, Debussy, Ravel, Satie and Poulenc. Texts of nearly 200 songs are given in French with line-for-line translations by Winifred Radford, notes on pronunciation and simple but detailed suggestions for performance and interpretation.
