Classics of Modern South Asian Literature Rupert Snell, Ian Raeside, 1998

Bridges, Borders and Bodies Christine Vogt-William, 2014-10-02 South Asian diasporas can be considered transcultural legacies of colonialism while constituting transcultural forms of postcolonial reality in today's globalised world The main focus of investigation here is South Asian women's fiction where diverse forms of identity negotiation undertaken by the protagonists in a number of contemporary novels from the 1990s to the early 2000s are read as transgressions The themes of early gendered experiences of South Asian indentured labour migration female genealogies and transmissions of cultural heritages down female lines as well as negotiations of patriarchal violence are read using a framework culled from postcolonial and feminist criticism The literary representations of South Asian diasporic female experience in these texts are forms of commentary and critique by contemporary South Asian diasporic women writers Hence these novels can be viewed as feminist strategies of textual creativity with distinct political aims of presenting transformative narratives addressing the tensions of diaspora and patriarchy This book is intended to contribute to the current spectrum of academic work being done in diaspora studies in that it brings together the concepts of diaspora transculturality contemporary women s writing and transnational feminist critical approaches to bear on South Asian women s diasporic literature Contrary to the celebratory notion of the concept in much theory transculturality as represented in these texts is fraught with ambivalence

Home Truths: Fictions of the South Asian Diaspora in Britain Susheila Nasta, 2017-04-20 The figure of the diasporic or migrant writer has recently come to be seen as the Everyman of the late modern period a symbol of the global and the local a cultural traveller who can traverse the national political and ethnic boundaries of the new millennium Home Truths Fictions of the South Asian Diaspora in Britain seeks not only to place the individual works of now world famous writers such as VS Naipaul Salman Rushdie Sam Selvon or Hanif Kureishi within a diverse tradition of immigrant writing that has evolved in Britain since the Second World War but also locates their work as well as many lesser known writers such as Attia Hosain GV Desani Aubrey Menen Ravinder Randhawa and Romesh Gunsekera within a historical cultural and aesthetic framework which has its roots prior to postwar migrations and derives from long established indigenous traditions as well as colonial and post colonial visions of home and abroad Close critical readings combine with a historical and theoretical overview in this first book to chart the crucial role played by writers of South Asian origin in the belated acceptance of a literary poetics of black and Asian writing in Britain today

Literary Cultures in History Sheldon Pollock, 2003-05-19 A grand synthesis of unprecedented scope Literary Cultures in History is the first comprehensive history of the rich literary traditions of South Asia Together these traditions are unmatched in their combination of antiquity continuity and multicultural complexity and are a unique resource for understanding the development of language and imagination over time In this unparalleled volume an international team of renowned scholars considers fifteen South Asian literary traditions including Hindi Indian English Persian Sanskrit Tibetan and Urdu in their full historical and cultural variety The volume is united by a twofold theoretical aim to understand South Asia by looking at it through the lens of its literary cultures and to rethink the practice of literary history by incorporating non Western categories and processes The questions these seventeen essays ask are accordingly broad ranging from the character of cosmopolitan and vernacular traditions to the impact of colonialism and independence indigenous literary and aesthetic theory and modes of performance A sophisticated assimilation of perspectives from experts in anthropology political science history literary studies and religion the book makes a landmark contribution to historical cultural studies and to literary theory in addition to the new perspectives it offers on what literature has meant in South Asia Available in South Asia from Oxford University Press India
