South Asian Migration To Gulf Countries History Policies Development:

South Asian Migration to Gulf Countries Prakash C. Jain, Ginu Zacharia Oommen, 2017-09-19 South Asians constitute the largest expatriate population in the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) countries. Their contribution in the socio-economic, technological and educational development of GCC nations is immense. This book offers one of the first systematic analyses of South Asia-Gulf migration dynamics and its varied impact on countries such as India, Nepal, Bangladesh, Pakistan and Sri Lanka. It deals with public policy, socio-economic mobility, remittance policy, global financial crisis and labour issues. Bringing together essays from contributors from around the world, the volume reveals not only the multi-dimensionality of the migration process between the two regions but also the diversity and the underlying unity of the South Asian countries. This book will be invaluable to scholars and students of migration studies, development studies and sociology as well as policy makers, administrators, academics and non-governmental organisations in the field.

Asianization of Migrant Workers in the Gulf Countries S. Irudaya Rajan, Ginu Zacharia Oommen, 2019-11-27 This edited volume contains sixteen chapters by eminent scholars on one of the largest migration corridors in the world, i.e. between South and South East Asia and the Gulf region. Asia's trade and cultural contact with the Gulf date back to ancient historical times. Since the 1970s, the economic rise of the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) countries owing to the discovery of oil has inspired a huge influx of migrant workers from Asia. At present, out of roughly 15 million expatriates in the Gulf region, Asians constitute around 12 million (80 percent). The chapters in this book look at migration from countries like India, Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, Pakistan, Indonesia and Philippines to the different GCC countries. A few chapters also focus on migration from the Indian state of Kerala, a state where migration to the Gulf is prominent and where remittances make up over 36 percent of the state's GDP. Furthermore, the issues covered range from labour practices and policies, citizenship and state protection, human rights, gender and caste, as well as diaspora. This book explores the multifaceted nuances of the Asia-Gulf migratory corridor and uncovers future prospects and strategic implications. The book examines remittance behaviour, changing gender roles of immigrants, social spatial mobility, migrant policies, human rights, sense of belonging and identity, and perception, and the interaction between nationals and non-nationals. The book will be of interest to researchers in the areas of demography, migration and gender studies, as well as social science researchers, policy makers, human rights lawyers, civil society institutions working on migration, Gulf studies programmes and centres on South Asian and Middle Eastern studies.

The Future of Migration to GCC Countries Françoise De Bel-Air, Nasra M. Shah, 2025-11-21 This book provides an in-depth exploration of the evolving trends in South-South international migration to the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) countries. It presents a comprehensive analysis of migration dynamics from the perspectives of nationals, non-nationals, policymakers and prospective migrants. It highlights the multifaceted factors driving migration to the Gulf, including the transition from oil-dependent economies to knowledge-based industries and the shift from a reliance on low-wage migrant workers to the integration of highly skilled expatriates. It emphasizes the Gulf states as strategic destinations for the Arab and Asian middle classes shaped by global dynamics such as the gig economy cultural compatibility and socio economic instability in migrants countries of origin Furthermore the book offers a critical assessment of migration policies focusing particularly on the inadequacies in safeguarding low paid migrants while challenging the prevailing notion that migration to the Gulf is temporary and primarily economically driven Through an examination of new employment patterns migration flows and concepts of transnationalism the book interrogates the future trajectories of Gulf societies It is an indispensable resource for scholars interested in the region s transitions and future prospects

Indian Migration to the Gulf Anisur Rahman,Sameer Babu M,Ansari PA,2023-03-31 This book explores issues of rights issues and challenges faced by Indian migrant workers in the GCC countries It focuses on the struggle of migrants in the state of origin and destination states and how the process of migration shapes the identity and existence of migrant workers The essays in the volume focus on policy rights issues and challenges faced by migrants as well as the long term challenges posed by the COVID 19 pandemic With contributions from academics and policymakers this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of migration and diaspora studies public policy and South Asian Studies

Social Change in the Gulf Region Md Mizanur Rahman,Amr Al-Azm,2023-03-21 This open access book comprising thirty nine chapters divided into social cultural economic and political spheres offers a unique opportunity to dive into the complex dynamic and sometimes contradictory transformation of Gulf societies in the last few decades Whilst the Gulf region has at times been seen as impervious to this natural phenomenon of transformation timeless never changing deeply rooted in its ancient tribal customs and traditions and able to blend past and present seamlessly without suffering the wrenching trauma of change this is clearly not the case and the region is not immune to the inevitable forces of social change There is no doubt today that the social change sweeping the Gulf has been profound affecting almost every aspect of life in the Gulf societies This volume has an encyclopedic value as the chapters collectively offer multifaceted and multidisciplinary perspectives to understand social change in the Gulf region Through these chapters the role of economic and educational transformation and the impact of social media migration and urbanization have in driving social change in the Gulf societies is examined in detail with a focus on their directions magnitudes and relevant policy options It also considers how COVID 19 is affecting the lives of the people in the Gulf This book bridges gaps in the understanding of the rapid pace of social change in the Gulf offering practical solutions for policy interventions It is of interest to scholars and students in Middle Eastern studies specifically as well as sociology media studies migration studies and educational policy

Public Diplomacy between Asia and the Middle East Francesca Frassineti,Sook Jong Lee,Chiara Lovotti,2025-11-10 This book considers how public diplomacy is employed as an instrument of statecraft by Middle Eastern and Asian governments to leverage soft power Senior mid career and junior scholars from academia and think tanks synthesise their expertise to deploy historical geopolitical and economic approaches in their analyses and observe how new practices of public diplomacy have been developed tested and applied in the two regions Building and extending on the extant scholarship which remains mostly focused on East Asia it incorporates the Middle East not only as a recipient but also as a practitioner of public diplomacy The thematic focus is underpinned by case studies of individual nation states enabling analysis of concrete examples that shed light on the evolution of Asia Middle East ties This volume is an essential reference for scholars and policymakers in the fields of international relations international political economy and area studies who seek to explore relations between these two geographical areas beyond traditional diplomacy

Planetary Specters Neel Ahuja,2021-10-20 Neel Ahuja tracks the figure of the climate refugee in public media and policy over the past decade arguing that journalists security experts politicians and nongovernmental organizations have often oversimplified climate change and obfuscated the processes that drive mass migration To understand the systemic reasons for displacement Ahuja argues it is necessary to reframe climate disaster as interlinked with the history of capitalism and the global politics of race wherein racist presumptions about agrarian underdevelopment and Indigenous knowledge mask how financial development migration and climate adaptation policies reproduce growing inequalities Drawing on the work of Cedric Robinson and theories of racial capitalism Ahuja considers how the oil industry transformed the economic and geopolitical processes that lead to displacement From South Asia to the Persian Gulf Europe and North America Ahuja studies how Asian trade finance and labor connections have changed the nature of race borders warfare and capitalism since the 1970s Ultimately Ahuja argues that only by reckoning with how climate change emerges out of longer histories of race colonialism and capitalism can we begin to build a sustainable and just future for those most affected by environmental change

Connecting Africa and Asia Yoichi Mine,2022-04-19 By 2100 more than 80 per cent of the world's population is expected to live in Afrasia Africa and Asia This book draws lessons from history provides a new cognitive map of the world and discusses multiple challenges global citizens will face in the age of Afrasia an emerging macro region The centre of gravity of the world is shifting Whether the world can manage a soft landing into sustainable equilibrium depends on the nature of the dialogue people in Africa and Asia will organise The author argues that a state of equilibrium between the two is achievable provided issues related to gender employment agriculture human nature relationships and multicultural coexistence are simultaneously addressed Can future Afrasia present itself as a community determined not to allow the return of predatory practice internally and externally Will the fates of African and Asian peoples converge or diverge How about the future relationships between Afrasia and the rest of the world Exploring these questions using multiple disciplines this book will be of interest to professional researchers and graduate students in IR and Afro Asian relations as well as Asian and African area studies demography geography history development economics anthropology language education and religious studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license

Md Mizanur Rahman,Tan Tai Yong,2015-04-10 In migration studies the nexus between migration and development in the global South has been meticulously debated However a unanimous resolution to this debate has not been found due to the ever changing nature of international migration This book advances knowledge on the global debate on the migration development relationship by documenting experiences in a number of countries in South Asia Drawing on the experiences of global South Asians this volume documents the impact of migration on the social economic and political fields in the broader context of development It also presents a regional experience by looking into the migration development nexus in the context of South Asia and analyses the role South Asian migrants and diaspora communities play in the South Asian society Contributions from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds including sociology anthropology political science international relations and economics document the development implications of South Asian migration Broad in scope in terms of contents timeline of migration and geographical coverage the book presents empirically based case studies involving India Bangladesh Sri Lanka Pakistan and Nepal and their emigrants living and working in different parts of the world Going beyond reporting the impacts of migration on economic development by highlighting the implications of social development on society this book provides a fascinating contribution to the fields of Asian Development Migration Studies and South Asian Studies Handbook on International Migration William J. Serow,1990-10-24 This volume presents 19 national case studies of international migration The authors of these well written detailed but nontechnical chapters have complied with the editors request thereby yielding a number of general observations that appear to hold across these diverse countries

Choice Immigration the most difficult of all the demographic processes to document accurately has the most immediate impact on a nation's demographic structure and the essays included in this volume provide a useful overview of the immigration process as it is currently structured. In order to facilitate transnational comparisons each contributor has adhered to a common outline which includes historical setting legal policies types and quality of data major international migrations demographic effects of international migration social and economic effects of international migration and public policy issues. The future of international migration is also assessed. The individual chapters are devoted to case studies of immigration in a variety of national settings. Included are chapters dealing with the principal receiving nations of permanent immigration countries where immigration consists mainly of short term imported labor countries receiving an influx of persons from former colonial territories countries where immigration is based on religious factors or which are destinations of refugees and countries whose history as a colony influences current immigration and emigration patterns. Additional chapters address economically advanced countries and also focus on some of the principal sending nations of current international population flows. Offering insights into the economic consequences of migration from the perspectives of both sending and receiving nations assessing the overall impact of immigration and detailing the contributions of immigrants. Handbook on International Migration is an important resource for public policymakers and those who must be cognizant of the economic and demographic situation of other nations.

web the tip speed ratio  $\lambda$  or tsr for wind turbines is the ratio between the tangential speed of the tip of a blade and the actual speed of the wind the tip speed ratio is related to efficiency with the optimum varying with blade design higher tip speeds result in higher noise levels and require stronger blades due to larger centrifugal forces the tip speed

blade design calculation procedure at design point - Mar 10 2023
