Sustainable employment Great Britain: National Audit Office, 2007-11-14 This NAO report examines the subject of sustainable employment and the options available to support people in their efforts to maintain their work and advance in their roles. It has been prepared against a background of considerable focus and activity on skills and on employment in particular the Leitch review ISBN 97801108404860 as well as the Department for Work and Pensions In Work Better Off Cm 7130 ISBN 9780101713023 Sustainable employment is at the centre of the Department's work to help low skilled people into work and out of poverty. A number of recommendations are set out including that more and better information is needed on how long jobs are sustained and to identify the people most at risk of early exit sustainable employment can be improved by a programme of targets that take account of both job duration and individuals aggregate employment that an ongoing development of economically valuable skills is a key element of sustainable employment along with better integration between employment programmes and programmes for raising skills that the Train to Gain programme needs to achieve a good balance between focusing on hard to reach employers and engaging employers in raising skills

The Social Security (Flexible New Deal) Regulations 2009 (SI 2009 No. 480) Great Britain. Social Security Advisory Committee, Great Britain. Department for Work and Pensions, 2009 The Government referred proposals concerning the draft Social Security Flexible New Deal Regulations 2009 to the Social Security Advisory Committee SSAC on 1 October 2008.

These regulations will implement the Government's proposals to introduce an enhanced regime for those claiming Jobseeker's Allowance JSA. This will include implementing the Flexible New Deal FND as a new employment programme for those who claim the benefit for a year or after six months for those assessed as having greatest need of help to find work. The Committee's report gives broad support to elements of the revised Jobseekers Regime and the Flexible New Deal but also expresses a number of concerns about the proposals and makes eight recommendations. These fall under four broad headings the extension of conditionality the speed of the rollout of the full programme the contracting out of services and the changed economic situation. The Government sets out its response to the Committee's concerns and has decided to proceed with the proposals as laid out in the Regulations originally referred to the Committee on 1 October 2008
