Nomadic Cinema Alison Griffiths, 2025-04-15 From In Borneo the Land of the Head Hunters to The Epic of Everest to Camping Among the Indians the early twentieth century was the heyday of expedition filmmaking As new technologies transformed global transportation and opened new avenues for documentation and as imperialism and capitalism expanded their reach Western filmmakers embarked on journeys to places they saw as exotic seeking to capture both the monumental and the mundane Their films portrayed far flung locales the hardships of travel and the day to day lives of Indigenous people through a deeply colonial lens Nomadic Cinema is a groundbreaking history of these films analyzing them as visual records of colonialism that also offer new possibilities for recognizing Indigenous histories Alison Griffiths examines expedition films made in Borneo Central Asia Tibet Polynesia and the American Southwest reinterpreting them from decolonial perspectives to provide alternative accounts of exploration She considers the individuals and institutions including the American Museum of Natural History responsible for creating the films the spectators who sought them out and the Indigenous intermediaries whose roles white explorers minimized Ambitious and interdisciplinary Nomadic Cinema ranges widely from the roots of expedition films in medieval cartography and travel writing to still emerging technologies of virtual and augmented reality Highlighting the material conditions of filmmaking and the environmental footprint left by exploration this book recovers Indigenous memory and sovereignty from within long buried sources Official Handbook Public Schools Athletic League (New York, N.Y.), 1913 Building Character in the American Boy David I. Macleod, 2004-09-30 Among established American institutions few have been more successful or paradoxical than the Boy Scouts of America David Macleod traces the social history of America in this scholarly account of the origins of the Boy Scouts and other character building agencies through which adults tried to restructure middle class boyhood Back in print First paperback edition Washington Public Documents Washington (State), 1922 Abraham Fraunce, 'The Shepherds' Logic' and Other Dialectical Writings Zenón Luis-Martínez, 2016-04-29 Abraham Fraunce s The Shepherds Logic c 1585 is one of the first English adaptations of Petrus Ramus s Dialecticae libri duo 1556 Preserved in a manuscript also containing two shorter essays on Ramist dialectic the work was later modified and enlarged for publication as The Lawyers Logic 1588 But Fraunce s substantial and almost exclusive use of Edmund Spenser s The Shepherds Calendar 1579 as the source for practical examples makes the manuscript treatise a unique document revealing the influence of the Ramist reform of the arts of discourse on the new literary elite led by Philip Sidney and Gabriel Harvey This is the first published critical edition of Fraunce s early treatise and the two companion essays It presents the texts in modernized spelling traces their sources and contexts and draws out their literary and philosophical implications It also includes relevant excerpts from The Lawyers Logic such as Fraunce s quantitative verse translation of Virgil s Second Eclogue and its Ramist analysis and a full catalogue of the quotations from Spenser s Calendar As a whole this edition sees Fraunce s pastoral logic as a first hand testimony

showing how scholarly training in the Renaissance arts of discourse enlightened the composition and interpretation of poetic texts
