Reading Assessment to Instruction Arleen Shearer Mariotti, Susan P. Homan, 1997 Linking Reading Assessment to Instruction An Application Worktext for Elementary Classroom Teachers Second Edition applies current theory to classroom practice by providing in each chapter a brief explanation of major concepts followed by guided practical experience in administering scoring and interpreting reading assessment techniques Changes in this revised second edition include more information about portfolio assessment and a new chapter on running records Like the popular first edition this new edition emphasizes the use of assessment and diagnosis for instructional decision making rather than for simply giving grades stresses the use of informal assessment techniques reflecting the current emphasis in educational assessment theories but also includes coverage of standardized test scores provides both classroom tested results and interpretations of the data giving students step by step experience in administering scoring and interpreting assessment techniques and includes numerous hands on activity worksheets and t Becoming an Effective Reading Teacher Richard David Robinson, Thomas L. Good, 1987

Reading Diagnosis for Teachers Rebecca Barr, 2007 Built on a case study approach to reading diagnosis this classroom based resource features strong research a theoretical foundation and a developmental constructivist perspective of literacy In this fourth edition the authors offer an Instructional Approach that consistently helps the reflective practitioner connect diagnosis with instructional planning It provides many more cases from actual students and classrooms than other diagnosis books as well as a strong research and theoretical grounding for practice The authors introduce readers to early literacy screening running records informal reading inventories miscue analysis assessment issues related to national and state initiatives and much more Reading Problems Joyce Holt Jennings, JoAnne Schudt Caldwell, Janet W. Lerner, 2006 Would the world be a better place if human societies were somehow able to curb their desires for material goods Saleem Ali s pioneering book links human wants and needs by providing a natural history of consumption and materialism with scientific detail and humanistic nuance It argues that simply disavowing consumption of materials is not likely to help in planning for a resource scarce future given global inequality development imperatives and our goals for a democratic global society Rather than suppress the creativity and desire to discover that is often embedded in the exploration and production of material goods which he calls the treasure impulse Ali proposes a new environmental paradigm one that accepts our need to consume treasure for cultural and developmental reasons but warns of our concomitant need to conserve In evaluating the impact of treasure consumption on resource rich countries he argues that there is a way to consume responsibly and alleviate global poverty Early Literacy Instruction John A. Smith, Sylvia Read, 2005 This introductory K 3 literacy instruction text details authentic classroom practice by authors who have recently taught in primary and elementary classrooms Organized around a comprehensive reading and writing instructional framework the text balances the authors rich classroom experiences with a theoretical perspective The authors also share a wealth of practical teaching strategies authentic student artifacts and real teaching examples The chapter opening vignettes demonstrate real world classroom encounters the phonics and assessment chapters provide especially useful classroom guidance and the effective strategies offered to help English Language Learners and Struggling Readers in Chapter 11 and in text features throughout the book make this new text a valuable choice for teacher education
