Of Fools, Fops and Funambulists Judith Spencer, 2007 Arts & Decoration, 1920 Plays and Players, 1972 Judy, Or the London Serio-comic Journal, 1887 Qualified Hope Mitchum Huehls, 2009 What is the political value of time and where does that value reside Should politics place its hope in future possibility or does that simply defer action in the present Can the present ground a vision of change or is it too circumscribed by the status quo In Qualified Hope A Postmodern Politics of Time Mitchum Huehls contends that conventional treatments of time's relationship to politics are limited by a focus on real world experiences of time By contrast the innovative literary forms developed by authors in direct response to political events such as the Cold War globalization the emergence of identity politics and 9 11 offer readers uniquely literary experiences of time And it is in these literary experiences of time that Qualified Hope identifies more complicated and thus more productive ways to think about the time politics relationship Qualified Hope challenges the conventional characterization of postmodernism as a period in which authors reject time in favor of space as the primary category for organizing experience and knowledge And by identifying a common commitment to time at the heart of postmodern literature Huehls suggests that the period defining divide between multiculturalism and theory is not as stark as previously thought
