Stepping Through Time:

Stepping Through Time Olaf Goubitz, Carol van Driel-Murray, Willy Groenman-Van Waateringe, 2007 Drawing on 25 years experience as a conservator of leather Goubitz presents a typological catalogue of footwear dating from 800 1800 AD The study is based on Goubitz analysis of an important assemblage of shoes recovered from excavations at Dordrecht in the Netherlands but the volume's aim is to offer guidance for the identification of shoes found on sites across north western Europe In addition contributions from van Driel Murray and Groenman van Waateringe examine evidence for shoe types in prehistoric Europe and the north western provinces of the Roman Empire periods which inevitably have left less evidence The fully illustrated catalogue follows a comprehensive discussion of shoes styles and technology including height standards iconography material patterns stitches soles the identification and dating of fragments and conservation The volume should prove a useful tool for Roman and especially medieval historians and archaeologists

A Walk Through Time Kathleen Barner, 2012-01-30 Who would have ever thought that a stroll back through one's childhood neighborhood would have opened the door to the very real existence of another realm of life hidden behind the scenes of our lives That's exactly what happened as I walked back to visit the simplicity of yesterday only to face again what I thought was the great dichotomy of today On that ordinary park bench on that not so long ago morning my life was forever transformed For it was there that the unveiling of a connection to a phenomenal power and supernatural ability took me on a journey into incredible insights powers and the miraculous healing that exists in the center of all mankind And it was also there that I first encountered the Voice I was shown the purpose of time and the great secret it holds Visions and songs and strangers revealed insights that kept taking me further into the great ascending truth that's been hidden in the midst of us the whole time Dreams became avenues of incredible wisdom Laughter and tears carried me through realms of experiences This is the very thing we've been looking for throughout all of our existence As the journey comes full circle any mysteries of life fade into the simplicity that's been revealed and that has been with us the whole entire time This is meant to be our home and now we know it

A Train through Time Elizabeth Farnsworth, 2018-02-13 It has been a long time since I read a book so moving plainspoken and beautiful Michael Chabon Pulitzer Prize winner and author of Moonglow How much of our memory is constructed by imagination And how does memory shape our lives As a nine year old Elizabeth Farnsworth struggled to understand the loss of her mother On a cross country trip with her father the heartsick child searches for her mother at train stations along the way Even more she confronts mysteries death time and a locked compartment on the train Weaving a child's experiences with memories from reporting in danger zones like Cambodia and Iraq Farnsworth explores how she came to cover mass death and disaster While she never breaks the tone of a curious investigator she easily moves between her nine year old self and the experienced journalist She openly confronts the impact of her childhood on the route her life has taken And as she provides one beautifully crafted depiction after another we share her journey coming to know the acclaimed reporter as she
