Box Office ,1959 From Film Practice to Data Process Sarah Atkinson,2017-12-20 To what extent have digital innovations transformed the UK film industry What new practices and processes are emerging within the contemporary UK filmmaking landscape What impact is this having upon filmmaking professionals The business of conventional feature filmmaking is like no other in that it assembles a huge company of people from a range of disciplines on a temporary basis all to engage in the collaborative endeavour of producing a unique one off piece of work By focusing on the pivotal year of 2012 and by considering the input of every single contributor to the process this book illuminates how this period of analogue to digital transition is impacting upon working practices cultures opportunities and structures in the industry and examines the various causative forces behind their adoptions and resistances With an in depth case study of Sally Potter s 2012 film Ginger Rosa and drawing upon interviews with international film industry practitioners From Film Practice to Data Process is a groundbreaking examination of film production in its totality in a moment of profound change Commercial America ,1923 Electrical Installation Record ,1911 Television & Cable Factbook ,2001 Movie History: A Survey Douglas Gomery,Clara Pafort-Overduin,2011-02-28 Covering everything from Edison to Avatar Gomery and Pafort Overduin have written the clearest best organized and most user friendly film history textbook on the market It masterfully distills the major trends and movements of film history so that the subject can be taught in one semester And each chapter includes a compelling case study that highlights an important moment in movie history and at the same time subtly introduces a methodological approach This book is a pleasure to read and to teach Peter Decherney University of Pennsylvania USA In addition to providing a comprehensive overview of the development of film around the world the book gives us examples of how to do film history including organizing the details and discussing their implications Hugh McCarney Western Connecticut State University USA Douglas Gomery and Clara Pafort Overduin have created an outstanding textbook with an impressive breadth of content covering over 100 years in the evolution of cinema Movie History A Survey is an engaging book that will reward readers with a contemporary perspective of the history of motion pictures and provide a solid foundation for the study of film Matthew Hanson Eastern Michigan University USA How can we understand the history of film Historical facts don t answer the basic questions of film history History as this fascinating book shows is more than the simple accumulation of film titles facts and figures This is a survey of over 100 years of cinema history from its beginnings in 1895 to its current state in the twenty first century An accessible introductory text Movie History A Survey looks at not only the major films filmmakers and cinema institutions throughout the years but also extends to the production distribution exhibition technology and reception of films The textbook is divided chronologically into four sections using the timeline of technological changes Section One looks at the era of silent movies from 1895 to 1927 Section Two starts with the coming of sound and covers 1928 until 1950 Section Three runs from 1951 to 1975 and deals with the coming and development of television and Section Four focuses on the coming of home video and the transition to digital from 1975 to 2010 Key pedagogical features include timelines in each section help students to situate the films within a broader historical context case study boxes with close up analysis of specific film histories and a particular emphasis on film reception lavishly illustrated with over 450 color images to put faces to names and to connect pictures to film titles margin notes add background information and clarity glossary for clear understanding of the key terms described references and further reading at the end of each chapter to enhance further study A supporting website is available at www.routledge.com/textbooks/moviehistory with lots of extra materials useful for the classroom or independent study including additional case studies new in depth and unique to the website international case studies for the Netherlands in Dutch and English timeline A movie history timeline charting key dates in the history of cinema from 1890 to the present day revision flash cards ideal for getting to grips with key terms in film studies related resources on the website you will find every link from the book for ease of use plus access to additional online material students are also invited to submit their own movie history case studies see website for details Written by two highly respected film scholars and experienced teachers Movie History is the ideal textbook for students studying film history

The Perils of Moviegoing in America Gary D. Rhodes, 2011-11-24 During the first fifty years of the American cinema the act of going to the movies was a risky process fraught with a number of possible physical and moral dangers Film fires were rampant claiming many lives as were movie theatre robberies which became particularly common during the Great Depression Labor disputes provoked a large number of movie theatre bombings while low level criminals like murderers molesters and prostitutes plied their trades in the darkened auditoriums That was all in addition to the spread of disease both real as in the case of influenza and imagined movie eyestrain Audiences also confronted an array of perceived moral dangers Blue Laws prohibited Sunday film screenings though theatres ignored them in many areas sometimes resulting in the arrests of entire audiences Movie theatre lotteries became another problem condemned by politicians and clergymen throughout America for being immoral gambling The Perils of Moviegoing in America 1896 1950 provides the first history of the many threats that faced film audiences threats which claimed hundreds if not thousands of lives
