SUPER 6 COMPREHENSION STRATEGIES

To be a good reader I need to...

Predict

Use clues from the text or images and sounds, or prior knowledge, to guess what happens in the text. You can predict what happens before, during and after reading.

Make Connections

Make connections between what you already know or have and the words around you. These connections can help with understanding a text.

Question

Ask yourself and review questions as you read a text to make sure you understand what you are reading. You can question before, during and after reading a text.

Monitor

Stop and think about what you are reading when it doesn't make sense... Ask yourself does it look right or does it sound right?

Visualise

Use information from the text to create a visual image in your head. Think about what you smell, hear, touch, taste or feel.

Summarise

What you have read in your own words. If you include the important parts of the text...

Activity Cards

These cards provide a template for students to use when applying the Super 6 Comprehension Strategies to their reading.
