series Mike Lewis is a man with a secret that he doesn't want to share. The life of the 44-year-old geophysicist is one that most would envy. He's handsome, well-paid, and well-traveled, but he can't tell anyone about his psychic ability. Such an admission would put him and anyone he told in harm's way. He has always wanted a loving relationship like the one his parents had, but he refused to enter into a committed relationship like that without being completely honest. Can he find a woman to love who will accept his paranormal ability and keep his secret? He wants that more than anything else, and his biological clock is ticking. After spending fifteen years denying his gift of visions in silence, he can no longer cope with keeping this secret. While home after his latest job assignment, he decides to confide in Nelson, a psychiatrist friend of 25 years. Nelson recommends that Mike keep a journal and passively observe the visions rather than being part of them. This exercise allows the pair to explore the visions in a controlled setting. However, shortly after confiding in Nelson, all hell breaks loose. Mike learns that his home and electronics are bugged. His friends are in danger. A young woman dies. After two failed abduction schemes and not knowing what else to do, Mike decides he must learn to protect himself. He studies close combat fighting techniques with the determination to fight as long as he can and then run. A cliffhanger from the start, this book is a great beginning to a suspenseful series.
