Artificial Intelligence and K-12 Education Joseph Mintz, Wayne Holmes, Leping Liu, Maria Perez-Ortiz, 2024-11-25 This book problematizes and explores appropriate ways of using AI technology that can augment educational practice, especially in K-12 teaching and learning. Since the launch of OpenAI ChatGPT in November 2022, people have been debating to chat or to cheat while more and more educators have started to explore to add or to integrate it into teaching and learning. A list of questions has been on the way: What can ChatGPT produce? How accurate can the contents produced by the GPT be? What are the considerations that an instructor should have when using AI technology for student learning? To what extent can ChatGPT compete with humans in terms of learning? ChatGPT is just a technology tool but it drops a huge bomb in the field of education and even changes the way many think about education. The contributors of this book, as well as probing the ethical conundrums presented by generative AI and other new technologies in AI ED, summarize an overview of practice provided first-hand experiences and suggested strategies and methods that are workable in the field. This cutting-edge volume will be of interest to researchers, scholars, and practitioners of education, education technology, sociology, ethics, and artificial intelligence. It was originally published as a special issue of Computers in the Schools.

Artificial Intelligence, Strategic Communicators and Activism Lukasz Swiatek, Marina Vujnovic, Chris Galloway, Dean Kruckeberg, 2023-09-09 In a world that is increasingly wary of artificial intelligence AI, this book explores the pressing need for strategic communicators to move away from being advocates for AI and move towards a more critical activist role that enables them to counter AI-driven threats to communities and relationships. AI is contributing to inequality, misinformation, and environmental damage among other problems. This book argues that strategic communicators are uniquely placed to help counter AI-driven challenges because of their skills in relationship building and their ability to craft and deliver messages effectively By discussing the different professional activist approaches that communicators can take in relation to growing AI challenges the book offers multiple perspectives that will help to build knowledge in diverse settings and develop practice especially in community and activist strategic communication Research based and combining theory with practice this thought provoking book will be welcomed by strategic communication scholars and practitioners alike eager to develop a critical approach to the challenges surrounding AI

Brief History of Standards Hao Zhang, Youwei Meng, Zhaoyang Zeng, Lanlan Zhao, 2025-01-27 This book takes the technological revolution and industrial changes as the background The timeline uses the timeline to explain the path of changes in standard concepts since the millennium showing the scientific system and gradually becoming the focus of the people This book refers to the classics of a number of standard theories introduces a number of standards and its theoretical content and combines the industrial observation experience and typical cases accumulated by the author to put forward opinions on standards and standardization As the awareness of standards gradually rooted in people's hearts this book is not only an undergraduate reading which meets the attention of readers but also has some appeals to the academic industry and business circles to provide reference for the development of world standards
