5. a. Funds for state-managed maternity care programs launched in 1921
b. Social Security funds for maternity care in 1935
c. Increases access to health care for underprivileged women
d. Designed to improve education of preschool children
e. Provides contraceptive information
f. Provides supplemental food and education for the poor
g. Enables employees to take 12 weeks of unpaid leave but retain benefits and pay status when caring for newborns or ill family members
h. Establishes minimum working ages and led to national minimum standards for child labor and enforcement of these standards
i. Provides support and public education of handicapped children
j. Provides a national clearinghouse for missing children 6. Hospital stays for births in the 1950s were usually one week. Today, an uncomplicated case requires only 2 days. Follow-up of the well newborn occurs within 2 weeks and a nurse may make visits to the home if a discharged mother or newborn is at high risk. Implications for nurses might include the need for good organization of care based on research rather than tradition, identification of risk factors that may lengthen the stay for the mother and / or newborn, and teaching early after birth to help parents best care for themselves and their newborn. Teaching often involves other family members such as grandparents or siblings as well. (Student should describe their thoughts on how these changes are likely to affect nurses.)

7. Natural childbirth movement made parents aware of their need to become educated and involved. Preparation for childbirth such as Lamaze classes and La Leche League became accepted. Parents questioned routine use of anesthesia and restrictive policies such as exclusion of fathers from birth. Today, a father's attendance at birth, open visiting for other children and family, and extended contact with the newborn are encouraged.
8. Technological advances and emergence of paediatric specialties enable survival of many newborns and children who would not have survived in the past. Specialized care for premature newborns, specialized pediatric cardiology care, and pediatric specialties such as surgery and psychiatry are now available. Laboratories are equipped to test pediatric specimens to identify biochemical or chromosomal abnormalities. Identification of genetic risk and related counseling are more important.
9. The number of chronically ill and disabled children is growing. Some are dependent on specialized equipment such as monitors or ventilators. Parents must be educated in performing technical skills once reserved for the hospital, such as tracheotomy or central venous line care. The need for respite care for parents grows as the number of these children increases.
10. a. Assessment
b. Diagnosis
c. Planning
d. Implementation
e. Evaluation

Study Guide Answer Key Chapter 19:

Study Guide for Introduction to Maternity and Pediatric Nursing - E-Book Gloria Leifer, 2015-01-29 Leifer's Study Guide for Introduction to Maternity and Pediatric Nursing is a rich resource that enhances your comprehension and application of material from every chapter of the textbook. With a variety of learning activities, critical thinking exercises, case studies, and review questions, this study guide reinforces your mastery of the essential maternity and pediatric nursing concepts and skills you need to pass the NCLEX PN Examination and succeed in your nursing career. NCLEX exam style multiple choice review questions at the end of each chapter test basic chapter knowledge as well as ask for appropriate nursing actions what the nurse should expect in terms of medical care of the patient and what complications the patient is at risk of developing. Case Studies and Applying Knowledge activities provide additional opportunities to apply learned information to clinical care. Thinking Critically activities require you to apply what you've learned in the textbook to new situations and draw conclusions based on that knowledge. Learning activities include matching, labeling, and completion exercises to help you learn basic concepts of maternity and pediatric nursing. Crossword puzzles in selected chapters are a nice way to change up the format when testing comprehension of terms and concepts. Answer key is located on the student's Evolve website. Several Thinking Critically sections and case studies with critical thinking questions have been added. Alternate item format questions are included in the review questions for the NCLEX Examination.
