In short, lively chapters, she discusses topics ranging from Alexia (Bad Reading) and Changing Lives to Romance Fiction, Self-help Titles, Vampires and Year of Reading. Drawing on her own research as well as other published sources, Ross comments on the significance of each theme, provides examples of the phenomenon and develops the topic chronologically through further examples or through reversals. The essays are unified by an underlying theory of reading that views readers as sense makers actively engaged in reading themselves into the text and reading the texts back into their own lives. It gives educators and librarians insights into their roles with readers and offers a message about the importance of pleasure reading.
