Death Work Vincent E. Henry, 2004-04-01 In this fascinating new book Vincent Henry a 21 year veteran of the NYPD who recently retired to become a university professor explores the psychological transformations and adaptations that result from police officers encounters with death Police can encounter death frequently in the course of their duties and these encounters may range from casual contacts with the deaths of others to the most profound and personally consequential confrontations with their own mortality Using the survivor psychology model as its theoretical base this insightful and provocative research ventures into a previously unexplored area of police psychology to illuminate and explore the new modes of adaptation thought and feeling that result from various types of death encounters in police work The psychology of survival asserts that the psychological world of the survivor one who has come in close physical or psychic contact with death but nevertheless managed to live is characterized by five themes psychic numbing death guilt the death imprint suspicion of counterfeit nurturance and the struggle to make meaning These themes become manifest in the survivor s behavior permeating his or her lifestyle and worldview Drawing on extensive interviews with police officers in five nominal categories rookie officers patrol sergeants crime scene technicians homicide detectives and officers who survived a mortal combat situation in which an assailant or another officer died Henry identifies the impact such death encounters have upon the individual the police organization and the occupational culture of policing He has produced a comprehensive and highly textured interpretation of police psychology and police behavior bolstered by the unique insights that come from his personal experience as an officer his intimate familiarity with the subtleties and nuances of the police culture s value and belief systems and his meticulous research and rigorous method Death Work provides a unique prism through which to view the individual organizational and social dynamics of contemporary urban policing With a foreword by Robert Jay Lifton and a chapter devoted to the local police response to the World Trade Center attacks Death Work will be of interest to psychologists and criminal justice experts as well as police officers eager to gain insight into their unique relationship to death

Becoming Abolitionists Derecka Purnell, 2021-10-05 A NONAME BOOK CLUB PICK Named a Kirkus Reviews Best Book of 2021 Becoming Abolitionists is ultimately about the importance of asking questions and our ability to create answers And in the end Purnell makes it clear that abolition is a labor of love one that we can accomplish together if only we decide to

Nia Evans Boston Review For more than a century activists in the United States have tried to reform the police From community policing initiatives to increasing diversity none of it has stopped the police from killing about three people a day Millions of people continue to protest police violence because these solutions do not match the problem the police cannot be reformed In Becoming Abolitionists Purnell draws from her experiences as a lawyer writer and organizer initially skeptical about police abolition She saw too much sexual violence and buried too many friends to consider getting rid of police in her hometown of St Louis let alone the nation But the police were a placebo Calling them felt like something and something feels like everything when the other option seems like nothing Purnell details how multi racial social movements rooted in rebellion risk taking and revolutionary love pushed her and a generation of activists toward abolition The book travels across geography and time and offers lessons that activists have learned from Ferguson to South Africa from Reconstruction to contemporary protests against police shootings Here Purnell argues that police can not be reformed and invites readers to envision new systems that work to address the root causes of violence Becoming Abolitionists shows that abolition is not solely about getting rid of police but a commitment to create and support different answers to the problem of harm in society and most excitingly an opportunity to reduce and eliminate harm in the first place Media Review Digest C. Edward Wall, 1999 AB Bookman's Weekly , 1989
