The Miller, His Son and Their Ass

Read the story below.

Once upon a time there was a miller who lived in a little house beside his mill. One day this miller made up his mind that he would take his ass to the fair and sell it. They met a number of girls; "Look!" said one of them. "They are walking when one of them might be riding." When the miller heard this he bade the boy get up on the ass, while he tramped along merrily by its side. Soon they came to a number of old men, "Look at that young boy riding, while his poor father has to walk." Upon this the son got down, and the miller took his place. "My good fellow" said a townsman, "Is that ass your own?"

"Yes," replied the miller. "You two are better able to carry the beast than he is to carry you." So he and his son tied the legs of the ass, slung him on a pole, and carried him on their shoulders. It was such a funny sight that the people laughed at them.

The poor ass tried hard to get off the pole. At last, he pulled his legs out of the rope and tumbled to the ground. He was so frightened that he jumped off the bridge into the river and was drowned.

Answer each question.

1. What did the miller do with the ass?

2. What did one of the girls say to them?

3. Why did the son get down

4. Did the townsman befool them? How?

5. What did happen with the poor ass?
