

The background of the slide is a conceptual illustration. It depicts a person in a blue suit walking away from the viewer down a central path that leads into a complex, three-dimensional maze. The maze is constructed from dark blue, rectangular blocks. Above the maze, several large, dark blue rectangular blocks are suspended in the air by thin, dark lines, resembling weights or components being lowered into place. In the upper corners, there are hints of red hot air balloons. The overall color palette is muted, with shades of blue, grey, and a touch of red.
