Making Sense of the City Zane L. Miller,2001 Through an examination of such topics as city charters city planning texts neighborhood organizations municipal recreation programs urban government reforms urban identity and fair housing campaigns the authors offer insight into the process through which ideas about the nature of the city have affected action in the urban environment BOOK JACKET Chicago by the Book Caxton Club,2018-11-20 Despite its rough and tumble image Chicago has long been identified as a city where books take center stage In fact a volume by A J Liebling gave the Second City its nickname Upton Sinclair's The Jungle arose from the midwestern capital's most infamous industry

The great Chicago Fire led to the founding of the Chicago Public Library The city has fostered writers such as Nelson Algren Saul Bellow and Gwendolyn Brooks Chicago's literary magazines The Little Review and Poetry introduced the world to Eliot

Hemingway Joyce and Pound The city's robust commercial printing industry supported a flourishing culture of the book With this beautifully produced collection Chicago's rich literary tradition finally gets its due Chicago by the Book profiles 101 landmark publications about Chicago from the past 170 years that have helped define the city and its image Each title carefully selected by the Caxton Club a venerable Chicago bibliophilic organization is the focus of an illustrated essay by a leading scholar writer or bibliophile Arranged chronologically to show the history of both the city and its books the essays can be read in order from Mrs John H Kinzie's 1844 Narrative of the Massacre of Chicago to Sara Paretsky's 2015 crime novel Brush Back Or one can dip in and out savoring reflections on the arts sports crime race relations urban planning politics and even Mrs O Leary's legendary cow The selections do not shy from the underside of the city recognizing that its grit and graft have as much a place in the written imagination as soaring odes and boosterism As Neil Harris observes in his introduction Even when Chicagoans celebrate their hearth and home they do so while acknowledging deep seated flaws At the same time this collection heartily reminds us all of what makes Chicago as Norman Mailer called it the great American city With essays from among others Ira Berkow Thomas Dyja Ann Durkin Keating Alex Kotlowitz Toni Preckwinkle Frank Rich

Don Share Carl Smith Regina Taylor Garry Wills and William Julius Wilson and featuring works by Saul Bellow Gwendolyn

The Chicago Tribune Tower Competition

Katherine Solomonson,2003-11-15 In 1922 the Chicago Tribune sponsored an international competition to design its new corporate headquarters Both a serious design contest and a brilliant publicity stunt the competition received worldwide attention for the hundreds of submissions from the sublime to the ridiculous it garnered In this lavishly illustrated book Katherine Solomonson tells the fascinating story of the competition the diverse architectural designs it attracted and its lasting impact She shows how the Tribune used the competition to position itself as a civic institution whose new headquarters would serve as a defining public monument for Chicago For architects planners and others the competition sparked influential debates over the design and social functions of skyscrapers It also played a crucial role in the development of advertising consumer culture and a new national identity in the turbulent years after World War I
