A Poetics of the Undercommons Fred Moten, 2016-12-01 A Time of One's Own Catherine Grant, 2022-08-29 In A Time of One's Own Catherine Grant examines how contemporary feminist artists are turning to broad histories of feminism ranging from political organizing and artworks from the 1970s to queer art and activism in the 1990s Exploring artworks from 2002 to 2017 by artists including Sharon Hayes Mary Kelly Allyson Mitchell Deirdre Logue Lubaina Himid Pauline Boudry and Renate Lorenz Grant maps a revival of feminism that takes up the creative and political implications of forging feminist communities across time and space Grant characterizes these artists engagement with feminism as a fannish autodidactic and collective form of learning from history This fandom of feminism allows artists to build relationships with previous feminist ideas artworks and communities that reject a generational model and embrace aspects of feminism that might be seen as embarrassing queer or anachronistic Accounting for the growing interest in feminist art politics and ideas across generations Grant demonstrates that for many contemporary feminist artists the present moment can only be understood through an embodied engagement with history in which feminist pasts are reinhabited and reimagined

Queer Realms of Memory Siham Bouamer, Denis M Provencher, Ryan K. Schroth, 2025-11-05 Pierre Nora's concept lieux de mmoire realms of memory has become arguably the most significant academic point of reference when discussing processes of nation building and their interconnectedness with history and collective memory Although his theory has acquired popularity well beyond its application to the French context his influential seven volume series 1984-92 is not without its own shortcomings and failures which have only occasionally been exposed over the last two decades It is not until the recent publication of Postcolonial Realms of Memory Liverpool University Press 2020 that we see an expansive critique of Nora's own selective memory Our project seeks to continue challenging Nora's approach and France's national narrative by providing space to examine queer lives cultures and memories We contend however that those related to queer experiences within France's collective memory have almost never been addressed Queer Realms of Memory is the first book length study to question Nora's lack of engagement with queer French and Francophone cultures and histories History on the Run Ma Vang, 2020-12-21 During its secret war in Laos 1961-1975 the United States recruited proxy soldiers among the Hmong people Following the war many of these Hmong soldiers migrated to the United States with refugee status In History on the Run Ma Vang examines the experiences of Hmong refugees in the United States to theorize refugee histories and secrecy in particular those of the Hmong Vang conceptualizes these histories as fugitive histories as they move and are carried by people who move Charting the incomplete archives of the war made secret through redacted US state documents ethnography film and literature Vang shows how Hmong refugees tell their stories in ways that exist separately from narratives of U S empire and that cannot be traditionally archived In so doing Vang outlines a methodology for writing histories that foreground refugee epistemologies despite systematic attempts to silence those histories Planning & Changing ,2019 Hastings Communications and Entertainment Law Journal (Comm/Ent). ,2015 The Georgia Review ,2019 CLA Journal ,2016 Qui Parle ,2015 Keep Reading Giving Rise Manuel J.
