The Heart Is Unknown Country L. A. Rebhun, 1999 This is a study of love specifically of men s and women s emotional roles vis vis one another in Northeast Brazil of how people form conjugal relationships in this region and of the impact of rapid socioeconomic change on courtship marriage cohabitation and infidelity Rapid urbanization and expansion of the cash economy have transformed the region in a few decades Among the transformations are shifts in how people conduct courtship form marriages view the proprieties of sexual behavior and assess the proper social and economic roles of men and women These changes have altered the relative importance of physical economic and emotional intimacy in conjugal relationships transforming the nature of marriage once defined as a largely economic relationship into a largely emotional relationship as ideas of romance once associated with infidelity concubinage and courtship are increasingly attached to marriage The book is largely based on interviews with men and women who talked about their often complicated love lives with wit and passion and the book is rich in personal stories and quotations Women were asked to discuss the nature of men and women and men were asked to talk about women Both sexes were questioned about their views on prostitution concubinage and promiscuity as well as their definitions of love Parents were asked for their views about marriage and child rearing especially differences in raising boys and girls their relations with their own parents lovers spouses and friends and their views on virginity and sexual propriety The bluntness and articulateness of the informants about their motivations and experiences not only demonstrated that men and women viewed conjugal relationships very differently but enabled the author to specify and explore these differences in unusually interesting ways

Canada into the Missouri but Lewis reported there was no such river and thus no U S claim to the Canadian prairie Lewis discovered the Plains Indians were hostile and would block settlement and trade up the Missouri Lewis took to drink engaged in land speculation piled up debts he could not pay made jealous political enemies and suffered severe depression High adventure high politics suspense drama and diplomacy combine with high romance and personal tragedy to make this outstanding work of scholarship as readable as a novel The Independent ,1926 The New York Times Book Review ,1989-04 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback Resources in Education ,1991
