Thunder At Twilight Vienna 1913 Or 1914:

Thunder At Twilight Frederic Morton,2001-04-26 From the author of A Nervous Splendor a dazzling portrait of the epicenter of the apocalypse that was World War I     Austrian Information ,1990     Dance of the Furies Michael S. Neiberg,2011-04-25 By training his eye on the ways that people outside the halls of power reacted to the rapid onset and escalation of the fighting in 1914 Neiberg dispels the notion that Europeans were rabid nationalists intent on mass slaughter He reveals instead a complex set of allegiances that cut across national boundaries     Albania's Mountain Queen Marcus Tanner,2014-04-21 Whilst young ladies in the Victorian and Edwardian eras were expected to have many creative accomplishments they were not expected to travel unaccompanied and certainly not to the remote corners of Southeast Europe then part of the crumbling Ottoman Empire But Edith Durham was no ordinary lady In 1900 at the age of 37 Durham set sail for the Balkans for the first time Her trip was intended as a means of recovering from a period of ill health and as a break from the stifling monotony of caring for her ailing mother Her experiences on this trip were to change the course of her life kindling a profound love for the region which saw her return frequently in the following decades She became a confidante of the King of Montenegro ran a hospital in Macedonia and following the outbreak of the First Balkan War in 1912 became one of the world s first female war correspondents Back in England she was renowned as an expert on the region writing the highly successful book High Albania and along with other aficionados such as the MP Aubrey Herbert becoming an advocate for the people of the Balkans in British political life and society King Zog of Albania once said that before Durham visited the Balkans Albania was but a geographical expression By the time she left he added her championship of his compatriots desire for freedom had helped add a new state to the map Durham was tremendously popular in the region itself earning her the affectionate title Queen of the Mountains and an enduring legacy which continues unabated until this day Yet she has been all but forgotten in the country of her birth Marcus Tanner here tells the fascinating story of Durham s relationship with the Balkans painting a vivid portrait of a remarkable and sometimes formidable woman who was several decades ahead of her time     The Rotarian ,1990-03 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine     Talking Book Topics ,1992 Includes audio versions and annual title author index

International Review of the Aesthetics and Sociology of Music ,1998     Current Contents. Arts & Humanities Institute for Scientific Information,2001     The Literary Review ,2001     The Irish Factor, 1899-1919 Jérôme aan De Wiel,2008 This book examines strategic and diplomatic issues concerning Ireland at the beginning of the 20th century together with espionage sabotage and propaganda operations of foreign powers trying to manipulate Ireland Focussing on continental European powers such as Austria Hungary France Germany and to a lesser extent Russia the book is based on research in diplomatic and military archives notably in Berlin Brussels Paris and Vienna The research unearthed many unknown documents which in turn produced some unexpected revelations During the Boer War the French envisaged a landing in Ireland to strike at Britain They had also financed the activities of certain Irish nationalists The Germans and the French battled in the United States in order to control the influential Irish American community The comparison of documents found in archives in London and Berlin shows that some British officials let the Easter Rising of 1916 deliberately happen the aim being the decapitation of the Irish republican movement The book also reveals the existence of hitherto relatively unknown characters which played their part in the course of Irish history The correspondence between George Freeman in New York and Professor Theodor Schiemann in Berlin sheds light on Germany's interest in Irish and Irish American republican movements France's diplomatic icons Paul and Jules Cambon became increasingly aware of the Irish world's threat after the signing of the Entente Cordiale in 1904
