two types of narratives treat nonhuman animals very differently folk narrative considers them sentient beings while colonial narratives see them as game and do not care for their sentience Both types of narratives are further evaluated with reference to the contemporary position of natural sciences regarding animal sentience and of anthropologists and philosophers regarding the relationship between nature and culture Analyzing colonial accounts of hunting the author looks at the pain and suffering of nonhuman animals and combines statistics alongside narratives of British writers Indian populace and nonhuman animals in order to show narratives reflect and impact reality This book will be of great value to those interested in Animal Studies Folkloristics the history of Colonialism and India Ten Books That Shaped the British Empire Antoinette Burton, Isabel Hofmeyr, 2014-12-12 Looking at ten books that shaped the modern British Empire the contributors examine imperial classics anticolonial blockbusters and a range of pamphlets assessing the effects of each one on key aspects of imperial history The Jungle Book Rudyard Kipling, 2021-01-08 The Jungle Book 1894 is a collection of stories by the English author Rudyard Kipling Most of the characters are animals such as Shere Khan the tiger and Baloo the bear though a principal character is the boy or man cub Mowgli who is raised in the jungle by wolves The stories are set in a forest in India one place mentioned repeatedly is Seonee Seoni in the central state of Madhya Pradesh A major theme in the book is abandonment followed by fostering as in the life of Mowgli echoing Kipling's own childhood The theme is echoed in the triumph of protagonists including Rikki Tikki Tavi and The White Seal over their enemies as well as Mowgli's Another important theme is of law and freedom the stories are not about animal behaviour still less about the Darwinian struggle for survival but about human archetypes in animal form They teach respect for authority obedience and knowing one's place in society with the law of the jungle but the stories also illustrate the freedom to move between different worlds such as when Mowgli moves between the jungle and the village Critics have also noted the essential wildness and lawless energies in the stories reflecting the irresponsible side of human nature The Jungle Book has remained popular partly through its many adaptations for film and other media Famous stories of The Jungle Book Rudyard Kipling Mowgli's Brothers Kaa's Hunting Tiger Tiger The White Seal Rikki Tikki Tavi Toomai of the Elephants Her Majesty's Servants New York State Education Department Bulletin, 1917 Annual Report New York State Library, 1920 From 1891 to 1918 the reports consist of the Report of the director and appendixes which from 1893 include various bulletins issued by the library Additions Bibliography History Legislation Library school Public libraries These including the Report of the director were each issued also separately Bibliography, 1921 Bibliography Bulletin New York State Library, 1921 Legislative Document New York (State).
