Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture. It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers. The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture. It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture. Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature, sociology, media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries. BeTales, 2024-05-07 BeTales May 2024 issue is a special edition focusing on mental health and creating more awareness and importance about mental health in women. The School Library Manager Blanche Woolls, Joyce Kasman Valenza, April M. Dawkins, 2023-06-15 The seventh edition of this comprehensive school library management text expands upon the role of the school librarian especially in the ever growing digital realm and highlights the importance of school librarian leadership and outreach. In an era of budget cuts reduced staffing and a global pandemic it's more important than ever for new LIS professionals and established school librarians and administrators to demonstrate the value of school libraries to decision makers. This revised and updated edition of a classic text adds two well known authors to help lead readers through the many essential management tasks and skills required to administer the successful school library program. It emphasizes the importance of the school librarian in providing digital access to information for teachers and students describes how facilities are being modified to accommodate new resources and programming and offers new ways to use AASL standards to evaluate programs. All chapters are updated and the text addresses such timely subjects as providing information resources when students, teachers and librarians are interacting online. A new chapter highlights the importance of the school librarian's leadership in schools, districts and communities. This invaluable textbook teaches practical skills for school library management and offers inspiration and guidance for growing LIS careers. Reviewing Culture Online Maarit Jaakkola, 2021-12-02 This book examines how ordinary users review cultural products online ranging from books to films and other art objects to consumer products. The book maps different communities in institutional and non institutional settings which intersect with the genre of review especially in the social web where reviewing is conducted on platforms such as Instagram, YouTube and Vimeo. The book drawing on the key concepts of cultural intermediation platformized cultural production and post professionalism looks at user generated content in lifestyle communities beyond the binary of professional and amateur production
