the role of traditional classroom trainers and saving companies millions of dollars in housing and travel costs because trainees no longer need a plane ticket and 3 nights accommodation to attend a corporate training program the training can be delivered to each learner's desktop over the Web. But because e Learning is still in the revolution stage there are no clear standards and models for how to create and deliver e Learning successfully. Everyone is asking the same questions: how does web based training fit in with traditional classroom based training? What are the standards for designing high quality e Learning? How much interaction with an instructor do e Learning participants need? What is the role of the instructional designer in online learning? The ASTD e Learning Yearbook will be the first annual reference.

Making the Most of the Web in Your Classroom Timothy D. Green, Abbie Brown, LeAnne Robinson, 2008. I have not seen a more teacher friendly resource for using the Web in the classroom. The authors took both novices and experts into consideration. A must have in every school. Elizabeth Alvarez, Math and Science Coach, Chicago Public Schools, IL. A user friendly tool on many levels. I would recommend this book to media specialists, instructional technology teachers and district coordinators for both content and technology.
