Wegwijs In Nederland:

Trajectories of Religion in Africa Cephas N. Omenyo, Eric B. Anum, 2014-03-01 The book in the main discusses issues relating to mission ecumenism and theological education and is presented in four sections The first segment discusses works on ecumenical and theological education and assesses the relevance of the World Council of Churches Other issues discussed in this segment relate to the interrelationships that exist between academic theology ecumenism and Christianity The World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh in 1910 which set the agenda for world wide mission in a promising manner in the 1920s is also assessed in this section of the work The second segment which covers Religion and Public Space discusses works that examine the relationships between religion and power religion and development religion and traditional religious beliefs and religion and practices in Africa The third segment of the book treats Religion and Cultural Practices in African and how all these work out in couching out an African theology and African Christianity Some of the issues discussed in this section related to African traditional philosophy spiritism and the interrelationships that exist between African Christianity and African Traditional Religion The last segment of the book discusses the issue of African biblical hermeneutics and specifically looks at contemporary hermeneutical approaches to biblical interpretations in Africa Religions of the World

J. Gordon Melton, Martin Baumann, 2010-09-21 This masterful six volume encyclopedia provides comprehensive global coverage of religion emphasizing larger religious communities without neglecting the world s smaller religious outposts Religions of the World Second Edition A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Beliefs and Practices is an extraordinary work bringing together the scholarship of some 225 experts from around the globe The encyclopedia s six volumes offer entries on every country of the world with particular emphasis on the larger nations as well as Indonesia and the Latin American countries that are traditionally given little attention in English language reference works Entries include profiles on religion in the world s smallest countries the Vatican and San Marino profiles on religion in recently established or disputed countries Kosovo and Nagorno Karabakh as well as profiles on religion in some of the world s most remote places Antarctica and Easter Island Religions of the World is unique in that it is based in religion on the ground tracing the development of each of the 16 major world religious traditions through its institutional expressions in the modern world its major geographical sites and its major celebrations Unlike other works the encyclopedia also covers the world of religious unbelief as expressed in atheism humanism and other traditions Crossroad Discourses between Christianity and Culture, 2010-01-01

Christianity exists in relation to and interacts with its cultural environment in a number of ways In this volume authors from a wide variety of backgrounds explore various facets of the relationship and interaction of Christianity with its cultural environment politics society esthetics religion and spirituality and with itself Divided into three main sections Crossroad Discourses between Christianity and Culture looks at the interaction of Christianity with culture in the first section with other religions and spiritualities in the second and finally with itself in the third The contributions engage in a critical examination of not only the culture in which Christianity finds itself but also in a critical examination of Christianity itself and its interaction with that culture The editors hope that teachers students and readers in general will profit greatly from the critical articles contained in this book De Kampioen ,1984-08 De Kampioen is the magazine of The Royal Dutch Touring Club ANWB in The Netherlands It s published 10 times a year with a circulation of approximately 3 5 million copies
