CLOG x FEEDS
CLOG, 2022-04-27 CLOG x FEEDS Of the 4.78 billion people online today 3.8 billion are active social media users who regularly log onto numerous platforms to post like comment consume sell talk shit creep and more via algorithmic data infrastructures colloquially known as feeds Feeds have become a dominant form of communication completely reshaping our digital commons Feeds are purported to connect us to one another they spark friendships romances and revolutions and they keep them alive On the other hand feeds are explicitly designed to increase engagement Not only do feeds capture our attention they turn it into a product ultimately generating advertising revenue for third parties Epitomizing the fleeting moment and eluding nuanced in depth discussion the same algorithms that serve to unite people with similar interests and ideologies also amplify differences demonstrating an ability to not only connect us but to drive us apart Continually optimizing algorithms make it impossible to step into the same feed twice Whether they function as windows into the world as mirrors pointed at ourselves or as something altogether more insidious feeds wield a powerful influence over individuals global communities and systems they have impacted everything from how we shop to how we tell jokes to how we protest injustice to how we vote The eighteenth issue of CLOG examines the design behavior and impact of feeds and the myriad ways in which we interact with them during this increasingly entropic time
