Subalternity and Representation, 2009 DIVA discussion of current debates in cultural and subaltern studies with a particular focus on Latin America that offers the possibility of constituting new political practices div Her Master's Tools? Caroline Vander Stichele, Todd C. Penner, 2005 Encountering Hegemony in the Representation of Subalternity Hui-ting Liao, 2005 The Colonial Divide in Peruvian Narrative Misha Kokotovic, 2005 Though Peru is its principal focus the text engages with current studies of modernity at the postcolonial margins of the Western world by contributing to an understanding of the class and ethnic conflicts generated by rapid modernization in culturally heterogeneous nations Jacket The Social Sciences in the Looking Glass Didier Fassin, George Steinmetz, 2023-02-20 In recent years social scientists have turned their critical lens on the historical roots and contours of their disciplines including their politics and practices epistemologies and methods institutionalization and professionalization national development and colonial expansion globalization and local contestations and public presence and role in society The Social Sciences in the Looking Glass offers current social scientific perspectives on this reflexive moment Examining sociology anthropology philosophy political science legal theory and religious studies the volume's contributors outline the present transformations of the social sciences explore their connections with critical humanities analyze the challenges of alternate paradigms and interrogate recent endeavors to move beyond the human Throughout the authors who belong to half a dozen disciplines trace how the social sciences are thoroughly entangled in the social facts they analyze and are key to helping us understand the conditions of our world Contributors Chitralekha Jean Louis Fabiani Didier Fassin Johan Heilbron Miriam Kingsberg Kadia Kristoffer Kropp Nicolas Langlitz John Lardas Modern Ivaro Morcillo Laiz Am n P rez Carel Smith George Steinmetz Peter D Thomas Bregje van Eekelen Agata Zysiak Critical Latin American and Latino Studies Juan Poblete, 2003 This book brings together some of the most prominent scholars working across the spectrum of Latin American and Latino studies to explore their changing intellectual undertaking in relation to global processes of change Critical Latin American and Latino Studies identifies the challenges and possibilities of more politically engaged and theoretically critical modes of scholarly practice One objective is to provide a brief critical history of the study of various Latin American cultures Latino Chicano Puerto Rican among others But these essays also serve to assess the roles of ethnic and area studies in light of changing scholarly trends from emphases on gender and sexuality to a focus on postcoloniality and globalization The result is an important contribution to current debates on the conditions of contemporary knowledge production Book jacket The Postcolonial Unconscious Neil Lazarus, 2011-06-30 The Postcolonial Unconscious is a major attempt to reconstruct the whole field of postcolonial studies In this magisterial and at times polemical study Neil Lazarus argues that the key critical concepts that form the very foundation of the field need to be re assessed and questioned Drawing on a vast range of literary sources Lazarus investigates works and authors from Latin America and the Caribbean Africa and the Arab world South Southeast and East Asia to reconsider them from a postcolonial perspective Alongside this he offers bold new readings of some of the most influential figures in the field Fredric Jameson Edward Said and Frantz Fanon A tour de force of postcolonial studies this book will set the agenda for the future probing how the field has come to develop in the directions it has and why and how it can grow further

Narratives from the Margins Sanjukta Das Gupta, Raj Sekhar Basu, 2012 Adivasis have principally been studied in the context of rebellion environmental history and the politics of identity However preoccupations with definitions and notions of identity while important in themselves tend to shift attention away from the inner lives of these communities This book deals with different aspects of the histories of adivasi communities from Rajasthan in the west to Bengal and Orissa in the east The essays in this book discuss a range of issues affecting the socio economic and cultural life of adivasis and explore the long term continuities and discontinuities between different political regimes They also reflect some of the new concerns that have come up relating to methodology and sources historiography and colonial concerns the impact of missionaries gender issues the agrarian situation famines and migration Some of the issues addressed in this volume are the genesis and development of tribal studies in India during the colonial period the peasantization of adivasi groups and their assimilation within the Hindu caste fold as reflected in Tulsidas Ramcharitmanas the work of the Protestant missions among the Santals of Chotanagpur the social and ritual relations between the Bhils and the Rajput ruling dynasties of Dungarpur in southern Rajasthan the aspect of agrarian change among the Hos of Singhbhum the factors behind the migration from Chotanagpur its nature and organization and its impact upon the adivasi village community the question of women s agency in colonial Chotanagpur and an exploration of land rights witchcraft employment patterns and how women challenged patriarchy in their everyday lives and the impact of globalisation and liberalization upon adivasis in contemporary India The book will be of use to students and scholars of history anthropology and sociology and also to policy planners

Furthering Humanity Timothy Gorringe, 2004 How should we reflect theologically about culture Tim Gorringe presents a threefold and interrelated reflection organised around culture power and mission First Gorringe interrogates culture through contemporary cultural studies but also through the contribution of the great eighteenth century theologian J G Herder He concludes by considering the question of cultural imperialism Secondly Gorringer asks where power is located in culture and how the church relates to that arguing that the central theses of liberation theology are far from dead The third part turns to questions of mission asking whether this is morally feasible in a culturally pluralist world and considering the implications of Samuel Huntington's notorious thesis of the clash of civilizations Gorringer argues that mission is in fact a vital part of a respectful multicultural society

Rev, 2001 Golf, Zapata, and the Tepozteco King John Bernard Stolle-McAllister, 2000 Muddying the Waters Richa Nagar, 2014-10-30 In Muddying the Waters Richa Nagar embarks on an eloquent and moving exploration of the promises and pitfalls she has encountered during her two decades of transnational feminist work With stories encounters and anecdotes as well as methodological reflections Nagar grapples with the complexity of working through solidarities responsibility and ethics while involved in politically engaged scholarship Experiences that range from the streets of Dar es Salaam to farms and development offices in North India inform discussion of the labor and politics of coauthorship translation and genre blending in research and writing that cross multiple and often difficult borders The author links the implicit assumptions issues and questions involved with scholarship and political action and explores the epistemological risks and possibilities of creative research that bring these into intimate dialogue Daringly self-conscious Muddying the Waters reveals a politically engaged researcher and writer working to become radically vulnerable and the ways in which such radical vulnerability can allow a reimagining of collaboration that opens up new avenues to collective dreaming and laboring across sociopolitical geographical linguistic and institutional borders
