Fantasy Violence and or Explicit Sexual Situations Intended for a Mature Audience The Family and Social Change in Chinese Societies Dudley L. Poston, Jr., Wen Shan Yang, Demetrea Nicole Farris, 2013-11-26 This book focuses on families and their changes in Taiwan and China Traditional notions of what constitutes a family have been changing in China Taiwan and other Asian countries The chapters in this book provide interesting methodological and substantive contributions to the discourse on family and social change in Chinese societies They also underscore the implications of the various social changes in Chinese families Written by Chinese and Western scholars they provide an unprecedented overview of what is known about the effects of social change on Chinese families One might think that defining a family is an easy task because the family is so significant to society and is universal The family is the first place we learn culture norms values and gender roles Families exist in all societies throughout the world but their constitution differs In the past several decades there have been many changes in the family in Taiwan and China For instance whereas in the West we use a bilineal system of descent in which descent is traced through both the mother's side and the father's side of the family in many parts of China descent is patrilineal although this is changing and China and Taiwan are starting to assume a family constitution similar to that in the West This and other issues are discussed in great detail in this book Indeed it is the very nature of the differences that motivated the writing of this book on changing families in Taiwan and China The chapters in Part I The Family in Taiwan and China focus on the basic family issues in Taiwan and China that provide the groundwork for many of the chapters that follow Chapter 1 is about the distribution of resources in the family in Taiwan Chapter 2 focuses on filial piety and the autonomous development of adolescents in the Taiwanese family and Chapter 3 explores the important issue of family poverty in Taiwan Chapter 4 moves away from Taiwan and looks at several issues of family growth and change in Hong Kong noting the interesting similarities and differences between Hong Kong and China Part II Issues of Marriage the Family and Fertility in Taiwan and China focuses specifically on marriage family and fertility In Chapter 5 the authors discuss the relationships between marital status socioeconomic status and the subjective well being among women in Hong Kong and Taiwan Chapter 6 describes patterns of sexual activity in China and the United States Chapter 7 considers gender imbalances in Taiwan and their impact on the marriage market Chapter 8 also focuses on Taiwan and examines the effects of mothers attitudes on daughters interaction with their mothers in law Chapter 9 compares female and male fertility trends and changes in Taiwan Part III Children and the Family in East Asia and in Western Countries consists of comparative studies of the family and children Chapter 10 examines the dynamics of grandparents caring for children in China Chapter 11 explores family values and parent child interaction in Taiwan Chapter 12 examines the significant amount of diversity among families in contemporary Taiwan Chapter 13 describes adolescent development in Taiwan Chapter 14 examines the impact of son preference on fertility in China South Korea and the United States And Chapter 15 explores the determinants of intergenerational support in Taiwan The final chapter in our book the only chapter in Part IV The Family and the Future in

Punching Back Jasmin Rana, 2026-05-01 In the Netherlands girls and young women are increasingly active in women only kickboxing. The general assumption in the Netherlands and in western Europe more broadly is that women's sport is a form of secular feminist empowerment. Muslim women's participation would then exemplify the incongruence of Islam with the modern secular nation state. Punching Back provides a detailed ethnographic study that contests this view by showing that young Muslim women who kickbox establish agentive selves by playing with gender norms challenging expectations and living out their religious subjectivities

Submissive Training Vol. 2 Elizabeth Cramer, 2015-03-06 Whether you have always dreamed about life in a collar or just discovered a desire to be sexually adventurous there is a place for you in the fetish world of submission. The culture of kink once thought to be limited to couples who wore leather pants and played slap and tickle in the bedroom has grown into a varied and well defined umbrella for sexual identity. Because fetish culture like all cultures grows and changes with the people who practice it there are distinct roles and categories that developed to help women define their preferences and find like minded people and playmates. Women in BDSM relationships no longer have to start with the basic tenets of submission to wrap that skin around their differences. Now you can look into the whole spectrum of submissive behavior and find the place you feel most fulfilled and comfortable. From women who enjoy the occasional bondage session handcuffed to their headboard to the girls who want to be fed out of a bowl and locked in a crate at night there is a place for everyone. In this Submissive Training guide we will look at twelve subcultures of submission including the New Misogyny explaining the overall principles and practices of each one and illustrating the pros and cons inherent in each style of sexual diversity. All people are different and you may not find one that covers everything you like or don't like but chances are you'll see something in one of these subcultures that makes you say That's what I want
