Assessment for Reading Instruction Katherine A. Dougherty Stahl, Kevin Flanigan, Michael C. McKenna, 2019-12-09
This book provides a comprehensive conceptual framework and hands on practical tools for reading assessment. The authors present a clear roadmap for evaluating K-8 students' strengths and weaknesses in each of the basic competencies that good readers need to master. Teachers learn how to select, administer, and interpret a wide range of formal and informal assessments and how to use the results to improve instruction. In a large size format for easy photocopying, the book includes 30 reproducible assessment tools. Provided by publisher JEBPS Vol 6-N1 Journal of Evidence-Based Practices for Schools, 2005-02-15. The Journal of Evidence-Based Practices for Schools is a leader in publishing research to practice articles for educators and school psychologists. The mission of this journal is to positively influence the daily practice of school-based professionals through studies demonstrating successful research-based practices in educational settings. As a result, the editors are committed to publishing articles with an eye toward improving student performance and outcomes by advancing psychological and educational practices in the schools. They seek articles using non-technical language that 1. outline an evidence-based practice, 2. describe the literature supporting the effectiveness and theoretical underpinnings of the practice, 3. describe the findings of a study in which the practice was implemented in an educational setting, and 4. provide readers with information they need to implement the practice in their own schools in a section entitled Implementation Guidelines. The Journal of Evidence-Based Practices for Schools differs from other scholarly journals in that it features articles that demonstrate empirically based procedures for readers to apply the practice in their setting. Reading Assessment in an RTI Framework Katherine A. Dougherty Stahl, Michael C. McKenna, 2012-01-01. The importance of Response to Intervention has never been clearer. We strongly believe that RTI, when fully implemented, represents our best hope of building the kind of schoolwide framework necessary for making truly informed choices about the type and intensity of the reading instruction children receive. Our goal for this book is to offer the guidance needed to use these and other tools in an RTI framework. This is a book about the assessment component of RTI. We offer guidance and tools for gathering the information needed in an RTI framework. We have tried our best to write a book that is both practical and specific, that reflects both research and common sense, that is consistent with standards, and that affords guidance in the issues central to RTI. The Reading Teacher, 1982

Television and the Exceptional Child Joyce Sprafkin, Kenneth D. Gadow, Robert Abelman, 2013-10-23. The question of what types of children are most influenced by or can best benefit from television is a recurrent theme in the scientific literature as well as a frequently raised issue for pediatric associations, educators, and parent/citizen groups concerned about the welfare and advancement of young children. To effectively address this question, this book focuses on a wide variety of children with highly divergent cognitive abilities, social skills, and educational capacities. These children not only possess characteristics that place them at the greatest risk with regard to television's negative impact but also in a position to most benefit from the purposeful use of the medium at home and in the classroom. Combining literature from the fields of mass communication, developmental psychology and special education, the authors present a comprehensive analysis of television and its forgotten audience. Practical implications and applications in the home and school are also extracted from research findings, making this volume a valuable resource for students, educators and researchers in the fields of communication and special education and for the parents and teachers of exceptional children.

Reading Horizons, 1990 Reading Horizons began in 1960 by Dorothy J. McGinnis as a local reading education newsletter and developed into an international journal serving reading educators and researchers. Major colleges, universities and individuals subscribe to Reading Horizons across the United States, Canada and a host of other countries. Dedicated to adding to the growing body of knowledge in literacy, the quarterly journal welcomes new and current research, theoretical essays, opinion pieces, policy studies and best literacy practices. As a peer-reviewed publication, Reading Horizons endeavors to bring school professionals, literacy researchers, teacher educators, parents and community leaders together in a collaborative community to widen literacy and language arts horizons.

How to Teach Reading Wayne Otto, Robert T. Rude, Dixie Lee Spiegel, 1979 Reading Research Quarterly, 1978 Reading Correction Kit Wilma H. Miller, 1982

Teaching Reading and Writing Andrew P. Johnson, 2008-09-08 Providing a wealth of simple research-based strategies for teaching reading and writing, this book is designed for each chapter to be accessible to teachers, tutors, parents and paraprofessionals. Teaching Reading and Writing demonstrates that effective literacy instruction does not have to be complicated or expensive. Each chapter provides easy-to-use techniques and with Internet search terms. This guide presents teaching methods that can be implemented without having to acquire additional books, packages or other instructional devices. All you need is paper, pencil, books, teacher creativity and imagination and a desire to help students.

Assessing and Correcting Classroom Reading Problems J. Estill Alexander, Betty S. Heathington, 1988 Tutoring Adolescent Readers Deborah P. Berrill, Dirk Jan Verhulst, Laura Doucette, 2006 Tutoring Adolescent Readers shows teachers how to reap the benefits of one-to-one teaching by using volunteer tutors. It provides the information you need to incorporate a tutoring program that addresses a variety of student needs from students who are unmotivated or have different learning styles to those learning English for the first time or who have a learning disability. Teachers will learn everything they need to create an effective tutoring program that supports classroom instruction. Setting up a tutoring program from defining the roles and responsibilities of tutors to recruiting and training volunteers. Working with dependent readers from identifying readers who need more help to tips for dealing with the specific learning needs and styles of students. Using explicit instruction from encouraging tutors to recognize where students are and how to set goals to monitor and assess student progress. Promoting fluency and word recognition from teaching cueing systems and modeling effective reading strategies to using specialized techniques for introducing and reviewing decoding skills. Resources that teachers can copy and use with tutors are an important part of this handy resource These materials explain the essentials of reading instruction and investigate the variety of techniques that good readers use     Evaluating Early Reading Assessments Robert Douglas Carpenter,2003     School Work ,1909     Reading Problems Margaret Ann Richek,2002 This book combines new and time tested approaches to reading problems by adding usable instructional strategies assessment tools research and an actual Informal Reading Inventory The book distills many different approaches to teaching students with reading problems presenting them in an approachable balanced and readable format Early chapters present general information on the reading process problem readers assessment and the principles of instruction Later chapters provide in depth information on strategies for teaching various parts of the literacy process and conclude with chapters detailing successful intervention programs and teaching in diverse and inclusive settings Reading Problems is extremely practical presenting many informal assessment tools and strategies Yet it also presents research on intervention programs multicultural strategies and extensive descriptions of tests The needs of adolescents and adults are also emphasized For educators of grades K 3 parents or anyone interested in literacy assessment and teaching strategies     Journal of Educational Method ,1928     Kindergarten and First Grade ,1923     School & Society James McKeen Cattell,Will Carson Ryan,Raymond Walters,1922     The Winston Readers Sidney Grant Firman,1918     New York Teachers' Monographs ,1903
