A Filtered Life Nicole Taylor, Mimi Nichter, 2021-12-23 A Filtered Life is the first comprehensive ethnographic account to explore how college students create and manage multiple identities on social media Drawing on interviews and digital ethnographic data gleaned from popular social media platforms the authors document and make visible routinized practices that are typically hidden and operating behind the scenes They introduce the concept of digital multiples wherein students strategically present themselves differently across social media platforms This requires both the copious production of content and the calculated development of an instantly recognizable aesthetic or brand Taylor and Nichter examine key contradictions that emerged from student narratives including presenting a self that is both authentic and highly edited appearing upbeat even during emotionally difficult times and exuding body positivity even when frustrated with how you look Students struggled with this series of impossibilities yet they felt compelled to maintain a vibrant online presence With its close up portrayal of the social and embodied experiences of college students A Filtered Life is ideal for students and scholars interested in youth studies digital ethnography communication and new forms of media The De Gruyter

Handbook of Automated Futures Vaike Fors, Martin Berg, Meike Brodersen, 2024-09-23 How does automation affect us our environment and our imaginations What actions should we take in response to automation Beyond grand narratives and technology driven visions of the future what more can automation offer With these questions in mind The De Gruyter Handbook of Automated Futures provides a framework for thinking about and implementing automation differently It consolidates automated futures as an inter and transdisciplinary research field embedding the imaginaries interactions and impacts of automation technology within their social historical societal cultural and political contexts Promoting a critical yet constructive and engaging agenda the handbook invites readers to collaborate with rather than resist automation agendas It does so by pushing the agenda for social science humanities and design beyond merely assessing and evaluating existing technologies Instead the handbook demonstrates how the humanities and social sciences are essential to the design and governance of sustainable sociotechnical systems Methodologically the handbook is underpinned by a pedagogical approach to staging co learning and co creation of automated futures with rather than simply for people In this way the handbook encourages readers to explore new and alternative modes of research fostering a deeper engagement with the evolving landscape of automation The Routledge Companion to Mobile Media Gerard Goggin, Larissa Hjorth, 2025-09-02 This second edition of the groundbreaking Routledge Companion to Mobile Media brings together newly commissioned essays and cutting edge research alongside updated essays from the original volume to create a definitive guide to mobile communication studies The collection which brings together original articles by a global roster of contributors from a variety of disciplines sets out to contextualise the increasingly convergent areas surrounding social geosocial and mobile media discourses Essays provide comprehensive and interdisciplinary models and approaches for analysing mobile media and draw upon a wide range of global case studies from China Africa Southeast Asia the Middle East and Latin America to Europe the UK and the US This new edition also covers the many changes in the field over the last decade from dating apps AI mobile phones travel games and digital transactions through drones blockchain microbilities virtual reality touch and haptic technology to the role of mobile media in health climate change mobiles and electrification digital migrant cultures arts creativity and politics and beyond This second edition remains an essential resource for upper level students researchers and scholars interested in mobile media research
