My Mourning Routine

Losing a loved one is often a process. With mourning rituals, people are able to mourn their loss and find a way to move forward. This is a process that is unique to each person and can be as simple as lighting a candle or as complex as a funeral service.

There are many ways to mourn and find a way to move forward. Some people find comfort in religious rituals, while others find comfort in secular rituals. The most important thing is to find a way to honor your loved one and find a way to move forward.
