Even If You Haven't Studied in Years You're heading to the office for another day that is inexplicably both mind numbing and stressful. But the repetitive administrative work, unreasonable deadlines and aggressive office politics easily explain this dreadful dynamic. Sigh. Perhaps not so surprisingly your long drive into work is now a highlight of your day. You pass through some spectacular nature and experience the serenity that comes from being alone with your thoughts. Not to mention you are a top notch DJ spinning the best mixes the world has ever heard. The problem isn't simply this company. You've had other jobs in this role and industry and it always ends up being the same. You are so ready for a change but you have no idea what else there is. After all this is what you learned and have the resume for Office jobs seem like your destiny for life. That's when you catch a clip on MSN Money about corporate supply chains and logistics. One of the biggest bottlenecks is increasingly coming from a shortfall in truck drivers. With autonomous trucks still years away from being able to operate independently truck drivers are in critical short supply. Commercial Driver Demand Growth 5% per year. Current drivers average age 55. Shortfall by 2026 175 000. Truck driver. You've never really thought about it but the money is good and the lifestyle is definitely a nice change from the ordinary.
