Literature and Social Media Bronwen Thomas, 2020-01-31 From Instapoetry to BookTube contemporary literary cultures and practices are increasingly intertwined with social media In this lively and wide ranging study Bronwen Thomas explores how social media provides new ways of connecting with and rediscovering established literary works and authors while also facilitating the emergence of unique and distinctive forms of creative expression The book takes a 360 approach to the subject combining analysis of current forms and practices with an examination of how social media fosters ongoing collaborative discourse amongst both informal and formal literary networks and demonstrating how the participatory practices of social media have the potential to radically transform how literature is produced shared and circulated The first study of its kind to focus specifically on social media Literature and Social Media provides a timely and engaging account of the state of the art while interrogating the rhetoric that so often accompanies discussion of the new in this context The Experiential Therapist Peter D. Ladd, 2020-10-06 In The Experiential Therapist Phenomenology Trauma Informed Care and Mental Health Peter D Ladd steps outside of the medical model to explore alternative ways of thinking about mental health disorders Through case studies and analyses of current methods and research Ladd stresses the importance of incorporating trauma informed care phenomenological insights and empowerment methods in daily practice By analyzing issues such as collaboration wisdom momentum dialogue and necessary suffering Ladd highlights the importance of engaging with a patient's mental health experience and its impact on her family and argues that successful treatment results from an informed understanding of a patient's experience not an ability to name and categorize difficult experiences as classical disorders year ago Isabelle Drake's life changed forever her toddler son Mason was taken out of his crib in the middle of the night while she and her husband were asleep in the next room With little evidence and few leads for the police to chase the case quickly went cold However Isabelle cannot rest until Mason is returned to her literally Except for the occasional catnap or small blackout where she loses track of time she hasn't slept in a year Isabelle's entire existence now revolves around finding him but she knows she can't go on this way forever In hopes of jarring loose a new witness or buried clue she agrees to be interviewed by a true crime podcaster but his interest in Isabelle's past makes her nervous His incessant questioning paired with her severe insomnia has brought up uncomfortable memories from her own childhood making Isabelle start to doubt her recollection of the night of Mason's disappearance as well as second guess who she can trust including herself But she is determined to figure out the truth no matter where it leads

Memphis Ginger Scott, 2018-02-23 My mom always said it was just something about the way he moved The same swagger Archie Valentine wore in the ring when he took his opponents down followed him like a halo everywhere he went But make no mistake about it he was no angel He was like a drug My mother was his addict I never understood it how love could make you blind and convince you to drink the poison Not until I met Memphis Delaney At first it was the familiar form He's a fighter built like a god from the past the kind of man the universe doesn't make anymore His eyes hide a story and every time I'm in his presence I want to keep reading him until I get to the end And then there's the way he moves His boxing is violent but beautiful and his body is a seductive weapon When he's in the ring he wears the stare of a man committed to the battle until his very last breath He could end me turn me into her Too much of him will leave me as a shadow and I've lost so much of myself already But I have discipline It came the hard way Lessons learned scars left behind and trust stripped away from life I will breathe his air but I won't fall for a man like him The only boxer who's ever going to break my heart is the one who gave me my name
