the standard coverage presenting topics with recognition of the biopsychosocial nature of sex and gender and encouraging students to examine the basis of similarities and differences within and between the sexes Many textbooks in this domain focus more on women s studies or psychology of women without much coverage of men s issues Burns provides a comprehensive and balanced sex gender perspective integrating contemporary research In addition this text provides an integration of current and relevant mis representations of issues related to sex and gender as a means for furthering students awareness of the gendered world in which they live Differences That Make a Difference Lynn H. Turner, Helen M Sterk, 1994-11-21 Joining the debate on gender differences this book presents a cross section of current research in communication language and gender studies The first part presents studies that ask how women and men differ on a range of communication variables and suggest reasons for these differences The second part offers a variety of critiques of masculine cultural hegemony The third part envisions how gender differences may be reconceptualized in order to open key cultural institutions to honor both women and men Taken as a whole the chapters inform one another in a creative dialectical tension Examining what researchers mean by gender differences and values implicit in the term is critical to understanding current trends in gender studies Make a Difference Day in Michigan, 1996 ,1997 The Applied Arts Book ,1927
