From the Directors' Chair

Since July was such a hot month, I really thought it might lighten up a little in August – but so far Mother Nature has proved me wrong. I am surely getting tired of these days with over 100 degree temperatures as it is affecting my desire to ride.

On July 7th, several Chapter O members met at the Cracker Barrel in Buda to have a good breakfast before heading to San Marcos to Dick's Classic Car Garage. Billy Lane, Steven Thomas, Richard Seay and Tom Andrews attended the grand opening event. Richard says there is also an antique car museum in Rosaroy which would be a great ride for someone to lead. Remember, anyone can lead a ride.

On July 18th, Chapter O hosted a GWRRA Leadership Training Day in Pflugerville. Lynn and Mark Hoernsman us through the Member Orientation Program. Even though most of us aren't really new members, it was very interesting. We learned about the History and Structure of GWRRA, Helpful Info for New Members, Member Benefits and Horizons Overviews, Training the Members, How to Participate and How to Have Fun at a Rally. We proved that we already knew how to have fun at the training day. The Hoerns did a great job and we all learned something and had fun. We had approxmately 14 members in attendance – the Lane, Poillards, Reeses, Osborns, Winfields, and Jennifer and Jerry Carr. Thanks to all who participated and thanks to the Hoerns for putting it together.

On July 27th, the Reeses, the Poillards, and Billy Lane rode out to Cowboy Henda to meet with the general manager Hal Burke about their interest in becoming a sponsor for Chapter O. They have a small classroom that we can have access to (it holds about 12-14 people). They have a very large parking lot in the back that we could use for parking lot practice. If we decide to start a ride from there, they would provide donuts and coffee for us and we are discussing some sort of discount for Chapter O members. They have a beautiful showroom, very friendly staff and they really want to be our Florida dealer and sponsor for our chapter.

On July 28th, Richard led an impressive ride to provide the route for the Burke Center for Youth Rally Event. Richard, Randy, Billy, Mark, and John C went on the ride. They headed to Round Mountain for breakfast but found out when they arrived that the restaurant didn't open until 11:00 so they headed on to Marble Falls to the famous Blackboard Café and that is always good.

Thanks to Linda Poillard who has agreed to coordinate our Christmas Party. She has a lot of good ideas and is waiting to check out locations and will be updating us soon.

We have been looking for a new scrapbook coordinator to replace Joan Miller who stepped down due to other commitments. Well we have found a willing volunteer! Let's welcome Tami Uptain as our new scrapbook coordinator. Also, thanks to Joas for doing the task for several years. Please let Tami know if you have pictures or ideas as she picks up the reins. We often enter our scrapbook in the scrapbook competitions at various rallies so keep an eye out for Tami's work.

We are looking for someone to prepare a member spotlight for our next newsletter. If you are interested in preparing one for our next newsletter, just send the information to Mark Hoerns, our newsletter editor, at
