Weaving A Way Home A Personal Journey Exploring Place And Story:

Weaving a Way Home Leslie Van Gelder, 2008 Weaving a Way Home will appeal to those deeply interested in knowing how we forge relationships with places and how that shapes who we are BOOK JACKET Dwellings of Enchantment Bénédicte Meillon, 2020-10-27 Dwellings of Enchantment Writing and Reenchanting the Earth offers ecocritical and ecopoetic readings that focus on multispecies dwellings of enchantment and reenchant our rapport with the more than human world It sheds light on the marvelous entanglements between humans and other life forms coexisting with us entanglements that when fully perceived call onto humans to shift perspectives on both the causes and solutions to current ecological crises Working against the disenchantment of humans relationships with and perceptions of the world entailed by a modern ontology this book illustrates the power of ecopoetics to attune humans to the vibrant matter both within and outside of us Braiding indigenous with non indigenous worldviews this book tackles ecopoetics emerging from varying locations in the world It underscores the postmodernist remythologizing processes going on in many ecopoetic texts via magical realist modes and mythopoeia The Child in Cinema Karen Lury, 2022-08-25 This book brings together a host of internationally recognised scholars to provide an interdisciplinary perspective on the representation of the child in cinema Individual chapters examine how children appear across a broad range of films including Badlands 1973 Ratcatcher 1999 Boyhood 2014 My Neighbour Totoro 1988 and Howl's Moving Castle 2004 They also consider the depiction of children in non fiction and non theatrical films including the documentaries tre et Avoir 2002 and Capturing the Friedmans 2003 art installations and public information films Through a close analysis of these films contributors examine the spaces and places children inhabit and imagine a concern for children's rights and agency the affective power of the child as a locus for memory and history and the complexity and ambiguity of the child figure itself The essays also argue the global reach of cinema featuring children including analyses of films from the former Yugoslavia Brazil and India as well as exploring the labour of the child both in front of and behind the camera as actors and filmmakers In doing so the book provides an in depth look into the nature of child performance on screen across a diverse range of cinemas and film making practices Bosnian Studies Dzeneta Karabegovic, Adna Karamelic-Oates, 2023-01-30 It has been 27 years since the end of the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the history of the conflict its consequences and long term implications for the politics and lives of its citizens has remained a source of interest for scholars across the globe and across disciplines This scholarship has included works by historians and political scientists seeking to explain the war's origins with a view to Bosnia's traditional multi ethnic character and background The country has been used as a case study in state and peace building as well as to study the implications of ongoing transitional justice processes Other scholars within the fields of human rights and genocide studies have focused on documenting the war crimes committed against the people of Bosnia and Herzegovina during the conflict and the mass scale displacement of people mostly Bosnian Muslims from their homes and homelands International law scholars have carried this work further tracing the development of courts created in response to war crimes in Bosnia and their effectiveness in generating justice for victims. Diaspora communities have formed in North America especially in St Louis, Europe and Australia because of war and displacement and have themselves become a considerable topic of study spanning the disciplines of anthropology, migration studies, political science, memory studies, conflict and security studies, psychology and geography. This volume seeks to illuminate how Bosnian migrant and diaspora scholars are contributing to the development of Bosnian Studies. The authors included in this volume are either writing from their new home bases in Australia, Austria, Canada, Switzerland, the United Kingdom and the United States among others or they have returned to Bosnia after a period of migration. Their chapters have distinct entry points of inquiry demonstrating how scholars have integrated Bosnia as a theme across the range of disciplines in which they are situated. The selections included in the volume range from literary analysis to personal memoirs of the conflict, from studies of heritage and identity to political science analysis of diaspora voting to genocide studies and questions of or lack of ethics in the growing field of Bosnian Studies.

Being-Here Annika Lems, 2018-05-24. Exploring the lifeworlds of Halima Omar and Mohamed, three middle aged Somalis living in Melbourne, Australia, the author discusses the interrelated meanings of emplacement and displacement as experienced in people's everyday lives. Through their experiences of displacement and placemaking, Being Here examines the figure of the refugee as a metaphor for societal alienation and estrangement and moves anthropological theory towards a new understanding of the crucial existential links between Sein, Being and Da Here.

Places of Pain Hariz Halilovich, 2013-02-01. For displaced persons, memory and identity is performed, re-constructed and re-negotiated daily. Forced displacement radically reshapes identity with results ranging from successful hybridization to feelings of permanent misplacement. This compelling and intimate description of places of pain and longing that were lost during the 1992-95 war in Bosnia and Herzegovina, as well as of survivors' places of resettlement in Australia, Europe and North America, serves as a powerful illustration of the complex interplay between place, memory and identity. It is even more the case when those places have been vandalized, divided up, brutalized and scarred. However, as the author shows, these places of humiliation and suffering are also places of desire, with displaced survivors emulating their former homes in the far corners of the globe where they have resettled.

Both Muslim and European Dževada Šuško, 2019-07-22. The edited volume Both Muslim and European Diasporic and Migrant Identities of Bosniaks scrutinizes some of the new aspects of the Bosniak history and identity and connects them with the experience of migration and diaspora formation. Adopting an interdisciplinary approach, the volume tackles a variety of important questions and issues such as the impact of migration waves on the Bosniak identity, dealing with the experience of war, genocide and forced displacement, the dual cultural code of being in between the two worlds, the role of religion, language and culture in everyday life, looking at translocal and transnational networks and practices. In addition to discussing the contemporary issues in Bosnia and Herzegovina, several chapters deal with the Bosnian migrant realities in countries
