Monroe,1880    Theology in History Henri de Lubac,1996-01-01 The unique insight and impressive scholarship of the eminent French theologian Cardinal Henri de Lubac are clearly evident in this volume of collected articles and essays An article of great timeliness on the priesthood according to St John Chrysostom as well as an important study of the long debate over the salvation of Origen are among the texts included in the first section devoted to patristics and Christian humanism The second section comprised entirely of an unpublished work on tripartite anthropology tracing the body soul spirit distinction from St Paul the patristic tradition St Augustine and St Thomas Aquinas up to the modern period will prove an invaluable guide for further study and reflection. The section concludes with a beautiful text entitled The Light of Christ, a prayerful meditation written during the dark hours of Nazi domination. Section three deals with disputed theological questions such as the internal causes of the disappearance of the sense of the sacred, the mystery of the supernatural and the development of dogma. He also has a section on Christian resistance to Nazism and anti-semitism as well as two sections on the thought and writings of several important modern spiritual writers.
