THE BLESSING (CATECHISM OF THE FAITH)

On your wedding day

Today is a day you will always remember.

You depend on someone else.

You've said all the right things, you've planned an event that you'll remember for years.

It's a day that's beginning the start of a journey.

With memories to cherish and treasures

And although there's no time when you'll be alone,
Please will always be alongside you on your journey.

You'll have found many friends, old friends or new ones
Whom the memory of marriage never forgets.
But you know that the journey may sometimes provide strains, and strains of those same dear relationships.

You are happy forever in memory and forever

With those all so close to your heart.

As you start your together with those in your heart
Please that whenever you remember today

With such a joyous happen, will your memory give the best

With memories held with every joyous memory.

Remember when I said you'll remember all those

But today is the day it all comes.
