On December 6 2000 Tian Tian and Mei Xiang arrived at the National Zoo from the China Research and Conservation Center for the Giant Panda in Wolong Sichuan Province They will be the focus of a research conservation and breeding program led by the National Zoo      Bei Bei Goes Home: A Panda Story Cheryl

Bardoe,2021-11-16 Two nations and a mother panda work together to nurture a precious treasure in the remarkable true story of a celebrity panda cub and his life at the Smithsonian National Zoo and beyond In August 2015 zookeepers at the National Zoo in Washington DC were thrilled to spot a tiny shadow on an ultrasound For a species as rare as the giant panda every new cub is cause for celebration Zoo staff monitored mother Mei Xiang and within days a newborn appeared weighing in at just one third of a pound While Mei Xiang cradled her vulnerable infant zookeepers monitored the pair day and night through cameras in the panda den and some two million viewers logged on to the zoo website First Ladies Michelle Obama and Peng Liyuan hosted a ceremony to announce the cub s name Bei Bei meaning precious treasure in Mandarin Chinese An instant celebrity the cub captured hearts all over the world But pandas in zoos are considered emissaries from the People s Republic of China the only country where they live in the wild Four years after his birth in America Bei Bei would embark on an important new mission Graphically arresting packed with stunning full color photographs and vetted by the Smithsonian National Zoo Bei Bei Goes Home paints a vivid picture of global conservation efforts and international collaboration in the guise of an ever popular and beloved black and white ambassador      The Smithsonian's History of America in 101

Objects Richard Kurin,2013-10-29 The Smithsonian Institution is America s largest most important and most beloved repository for the objects that define our common heritage Now Under Secretary for Art History and Culture Richard Kurin aided by a team of top Smithsonian curators and scholars has assembled a literary exhibition of 101 objects from across the Smithsonian s museums that together offer a marvelous new perspective on the history of the United States Ranging from the earliest years of the pre Columbian continent to the digital age and from the American Revolution to Vietnam each entry pairs the fascinating history surrounding each object with the story of its creation or discovery and the place it has come to occupy in our national memory Kurin sheds remarkable new light on objects we think we know well from Lincoln s hat to Dorothy s ruby slippers and Julia Child s kitchen including the often astonishing tales of how each made its way into the collections of the Smithsonian Other objects will be eye opening new discoveries for many but no less evocative of the most poignant and important moments of the American experience Some objects such as Harriet Tubman s hymnal Sitting Bull s ledger Cesar Chavez s union jacket and the Enola Gay bomber tell difficult stories from the nation s history and inspire controversies when exhibited at the Smithsonian Others from George Washington s sword to the space shuttle Discovery celebrate the richness and vitality of the American spirit In Kurin's hands each object comes to vivid life providing a tactile connection to American history Beautifully designed and illustrated with color photographs throughout The Smithsonian's History of America in 101 Objects is a rich and fascinating journey through America's collective memory and a beautiful object in its own right The Smithsonian's History of America in 101 Objects Deluxe Richard Kurin, 2013-10-29 A magnificent new history of America told through 101 treasures from the Smithsonian's collections The Deluxe Edition features eight videos that go behind the scenes at the Smithsonian for a closer look at some of the book's most important objects hosted by author and curator Richard Kurin The Smithsonian Institution is America's largest and most cherished repository for the objects that define our common heritage Richard Kurin its Under Secretary for History Art and Culture has for decades served as a driving force in the effort of our national museums to tell America's whole story This book is the culmination of a broad effort led by Kurin and involving all the Smithsonian's museums and more than a hundred of its top scholars and curators to select a set of objects that could collectively represent the American experience Strong deliberation honed literally millions of possibilities down to a careful selection of 101 remarkable objects that do justice to the history of our bountiful land and its people That history begins with remains from the earliest years of the pre Columbian continent and relics of the American Revolution and Civil War It includes the inventions of the industrial revolution artifacts of the Depression World War II and cold war eras icons of pop culture and of the Civil Rights movements as well as the objects that now symbolize the digital age and the first years of the new millennium Each entry pairs the fascinating history of each object with the place it has come to occupy in our national memory Kurin sheds new light on familiar objects like the Star Spangled Banner and Abraham Lincoln's stovepipe hat Dorothy's ruby slippers and Julia Child's kitchen the giant pandas and the space shuttle Discovery including the often astonishing tales of how each made its way into the Smithsonian Other objects like the suffragists Great Demand banner and the Tuskegee flyer will be eye opening new discoveries for many but no less evocative of the most poignant and important moments of American history Others like Sitting Bull's ledger Cesar Chavez's union jacket and the Enola Gay bomber illustrate difficult chapters in the nation's history Kurin also includes behind the scenes insight into controversies arising from their exhibition at the Smithsonian In Kurin's hands these marvelous objects come to vivid life awakening a deep and tactile connection with our nation's history A beautiful treasure in its own right The Smithsonian's History of America in 101 Objects is an incomparable journey through America's collective memory and a celebration of the resilient power of objects to illustrate who we are as a people A Chance for Lasting Survival Pan Wenshi, 2014-03-04 From 1984 through 1995 a small band of ecologists led by Pan Wenshi from Peking University conducted a study of wild giant pandas in the Qinling Mountains of Shaanxi Province This project was the first Chinese led conservation project in China and was conducted during a significant transition period in Chinese history as the country opened its society and science to the world The project focused on behavioral observation of wild giant pandas but evolved to include physiology nutrition ecology land use policy and population biology as the staff became more aware that the issues with captive pandas assisted reproduction unusual diet and genetic inbreeding were not the most critical to survival of wild populations It is evident in this work that as the scientists gained knowledge they came to see giant panda conservation as wrapped in landscape ecology and human wildlife interactions The group was seminal in the Chinese government s enactment of a logging ban to their study area by advocating for pandas at the national level The project was summarized in a 2001 volume but its publication in Mandarin limited its influence on the greater conservation community This English version of the original work translates condenses and refines the original volume with added contextual chapters on the importance of this volume and how our understanding of giant panda conservation is shaped by this pioneering field work

The Last Panda George B. Schaller,1994-09-14 Dependent on a shrinking supply of bamboo hunted mercilessly for its pelt and hostage to profiteering schemes once in captivity the panda is on the brink of extinction Here acclaimed naturalist George Schaller uses his great evocative powers and the insight gained by four and a half years in the forests of the Wolong and Tangjiahe panda reserves to document the plight of these mysterious creatures and to awaken the human compassion urgently needed to save them No scientist is better at letting the rest of us in on just how the natural world works no poet sees the world with greater clarity or writes about it with more grace Anyone who genuinely cares for wildlife cannot help being grateful to Schaller both for his efforts to understand the panda and for the candor with which he reports what has gone so badly wrong in the struggle to save it from extinction Geoffrey C Ward New York Times Book Review Schaller s book is a unique mix of natural history and the politics of conservation and it makes for compelling reading Having been in giant panda country myself I found some of the descriptions of the animals and habitats breathtaking Schaller describes the daily routines and personalities of the giant pandas he studied as well as their fates thereafter as though they were his blood relatives Schaller s brilliant presentation of the complexities of conservation makes his book a milestone for the conservation movement Devra G Kleiman Washington Post Book World George Schaller s most soulful work written in journal style with many asides about a creature who evolved only two to three million years ago about the same time as humans Here conservation biology confronts an evil that grinds against hope and shatters the planet s diversity Written with hope Whole Earth Catalog A nicely crafted blend of wildlife observation and political cultural analysis The Last Panda is a sad chronicle of our failure so far to stem the decline of the animal that may be the most beloved on the planet Donald Dale Jackson
