Socialist Realism Without Shores Post Contemporary Interventions:

Socialist Realism Without Shores Thomas Lahusen, Evgenii Aleksandrovich Dobrenko, 1997 Socialist Realism Without Shores also addresses the critical discourse provoked by socialist realism Stalinist aesthetics anthropological readings ideology critique and censorship and the sublimely ironic approaches adapted from sots art the Soviet version of postmodernism Elements of Architecture Mikkel Bille, Tim Flohr Sorensen, 2016-02-26 Elements of Architecture explores new ways of engaging architecture in archaeology. It conceives of architecture both as the physical evidence of past societies and as existing beyond the physical environment considering how people in the past have not just dwelled in buildings but have existed within them. The book engages with the meeting point between these two perspectives. For although archaeologists must deal with the presence and absence of physicality as a discipline which studies humans through things to understand humans they must also address the performances as well as temporal and affective impacts of these material remains. The contributions in this volume investigate the way time, performance and movement both physically and emotionally are central aspects of understanding architectural assemblages. It is a book about the constellations of people, places and things that emerge and dissolve as affective, mobile, performative and temporal engagements. This volume juxtaposes archaeological research with perspectives from anthropology, architecture, cultural geography and philosophy in order to explore the kaleidoscopic intersections of elements coming together in architecture. Documenting the ephemeral, relational and emotional meeting points with a category of material objects that have defined much research into what it means to be human. Elements of Architecture elucidates and expands upon a crucial body of evidence which allows us to explore the lives and interactions of past societies Film - An International Bibliography Malte Hagener, Michael Töteberg, 2016-12-16 Kommentierte Bibliografie. Sie gibt Wissenschaftlern, Studierenden und Journalisten zuverlässig Auskunft über rund 6000 internationale Veröffentlichungen zum Thema Film und Medien. Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1997 China and Orientalism Daniel Vukovich, 2013-06-17 This book argues that there is a new Sinological form of orientalism at work in the world. It has shifted from a logic of essential difference to one of sameness or general equivalence. China is now in a halting but inevitable process of becoming the same as the USA and the West. Orientalism is now closer to the cultural logic of capitalism even as it shows the afterlives of colonial discourse. This shift reflects our era of increasing globalization, the migration of orientalism to area studies and the pax Americana, the liberal triumph at the end of history and the demonization of Maoism, an ever closer Sino-West relationship and the overlapping of anti-communist and colonial discourses. To make the case for this re-constitution of orientalism this work offers an interdisciplinary analysis of the China field broadly defined. Vukovich takes on specialist work on the politics, governance and history of the Mao and reform eras from the Great Leap Forward to Tiananmen 1989 the Western study of

Chinese film recent work in critical theory which turns on the China reference and other global texts about or from China Through extensive analysis the production of Sinological knowledge is shown to be of a piece with Western global intellectual political culture This work will be of great interest to scholars of Asian postcolonial and cultural studies Slavic Review
