Wanted Christian Educators With Character:

Wanted James R. Virtue,2015-06-15 If someone was asked to describe your character what would they say Philippians 2 5 states Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus James 3 1 tells us that a teacher will be judged more strictly because of assuming the responsibility of teaching As Christian educators do we think like Jesus would think Do we act like Jesus would act Do we take our teaching responsibility seriously If you were the only example of a Christian that your students were ever to observe would they be drawn to Christ In WANTED Christian Educators with Character we are challenged to examine our lives in light of Scripture to live a life of character Insight is given as to how to develop this life so we are able to live above reproach which will enable us to be the example we need to be to our students and to others
