War Wounds Movie 2015:

War Faces on Screen Katy Parry,Mani Sharpe,2025-12-11 An exploration of a range of different visual media to examine how our emotional connections and political responses to the impact of war are mediated through images of the human face     A Cultural History of the Medieval Sword Robert W. Jones,2023 This study takes the sword beyond its functional role as a tool for killing considering it as a cultural artifact and the broader meaning and significance it had to its bearer     The Two Koreas and their Global Engagements Andrew David Jackson,2022-02-22 This book departs from existing studies by focusing on the impact of international influences on the society culture and language of both North and South Korea Since President Kim Young Sam s segyehwa drive of the mid 1990s South Korea has become a model for successful globalization In contrast North Korea is commonly considered one of the least internationally integrated countries This characterization fails to account for the reality of the two Koreas and their global engagements The opening essay situates the chapters by highlighting some significant contrasts and commonalities between the experiences of North and South Korea s history of engagement with the world beyond the Peninsula The chapters explore both the longer term historical influence of Korea s international contacts as well as specific Korean cultural linguistic and social developments that have occurred since the 1990s demise of the global Cold War and greater international integration     In The Name of LIBERTY AND DEMOCRACY: R. Lee Mahee,2023-03-08 This is the story of a Vietnam Veteran who went to Hanoi forty years after his return from the war to teach an MBA Leadership course It is a story of a college professor who gets to meet citizens of Hanoi who are the sons and daughters of whom were once his enemy Personal reflections are offered in the context of a twofront war the fight for civil rights and the war in Vietnam     Hindi Cinema and Pakistan Meenakshi Bharat,2024-10-03 Ever since the 1947 partition of the Indian subcontinent Mumbai based Hindi cinema has been returning compulsively to the idea of Pakistan sometimes as the desirable other sometimes as the horrifying antagonist Hindi Cinema and Pakistan traces the genesis and development of this theme in Hindi cinema in the 1950s showcasing its relevance as a tool that both reflects and shapes how India sees its neighbour the India Pakistan relationship and itself The book is a serious multi platform multi pronged exploration of the appearances invocations representations and treatment of Pakistan and Pakistanis in Hindi cinema It follows Hindi cinema s efforts to come to terms with the idea and reality of Pakistan Through in depth analyses of the enmity and rivalry between the two subcontinental nations in Partition films thrillers epic war films and sports films to screen depictions of the shared cultural past and similarities in films on cross border love or in films that show a reaching out through humour this book investigates the visualization of Pakistan and contextualizes these representations within the broader frameworks of India s political socio cultural and popular discourse The extensive reach of the in depth textual analyses of Hindi cinema will make this volume interesting and valuable both to the lay reader and to researchers and academics of cultural studies media and film studies and the study of socio psychological violence in media and culture

Filming History from Below Efrén Cuevas, 2022-01-11 Traditional historical documentaries strive to project a sense of objectivity producing a top down view of history that focuses on public events and personalities. In recent decades in line with historiographical trends advocating history from below a different type of historical documentary has emerged focusing on tightly circumscribed subjects personal archives and first person perspectives. Efrén Cuevas categorizes these films as microhistorical documentaries and examines how they push cinema's capacity as a producer of historical knowledge in new directions. Cuevas pinpoints the key features of these documentaries identifying their parallels with written microhistory a reduced scale of observation a central role given to human agency a conjectural approach to the use of archival sources and a reliance on narrative structures. Microhistorical documentaries also use tools specific to film to underscore the affective dimension of historical narratives often incorporating autobiographical and essayistic perspectives and highlighting the role of the protagonists personal memories in the reconstruction of the past. These films generally draw from family archives with an emphasis on snapshots and home movies. Filming History from Below examines works including Peter Berg's films dealing with the Holocaust such as The Maelstrom and Free Fall documentaries about the Israeli-Palestinian conflict Rithy Panh's work on the Cambodian genocide films about the internment of Japanese Americans during the Second World War such as A Family Gathering and History and Memory and Jonas Mekas's chronicle of migration in his diary film Lost Lost Lost.

We Are Not One Eric Alterman, 2022-11-22 A bestselling historian uncovers the surprising roots of America's long alliance with Israel and its troubling consequences. Fights about the fate of the state of Israel and the Zionist movement that gave birth to it have long been a staple of both Jewish and American political culture. But despite these arguments significance to American politics American Jewish life and to Israel itself no one has ever systematically examined their history and explained why they matter. In We Are Not One historian Eric Alterman traces this debate from its nineteenth century origins. Following Israel's 1948-1949 War of Independence called the nakba or catastrophe by Palestinians few Americans including few Jews paid much attention to Israel or the challenges it faced. Following the 1967 Six Day War however almost overnight support for Israel became the primary component of American Jews' collective identity. Over time Jewish organizations joined forces with conservative Christians and neoconservative pundits and politicos to wage a tenacious fight to define Israel's image in the US media popular culture Congress and college campuses Deeply researched We Are Not One reveals how our consensus on Israel and Palestine emerged and why today it is fracturing.

The history of warfare and the history of medicine are closely intertwined. War has been an accelerator of advances in medical treatment and surgery. As modern weaponry became more destructive medicine developed techniques and procedures to deal with the volume and nature of battlefield casualties. Preventative medicine has also increased the effectiveness of fighting forces through improvements in soldiers health and disease resistance This book is a collection of chapters by historians medical practitioners and researchers former and serving military medical officers surgeons nurses and veterans who explore the impact of war wounds and trauma through the historical record reported narratives and personal experiences The book includes major sections on World War One including chapters on shell shock and plastic surgery World War Two including a chapter on the Nazi death camps the Vietnam War including chapters on Agent Orange and sexually transmitted diseases together with chapters on the Korean War and the current conflict in Afghanistan In addition the book includes several personal stories in which veterans describe their experiences of injury and recovery War Wounds is a truly unique book which offers considerable insights into an aspect of war that is often mentioned but seldom examined as it is here Medical professionals military personnel and the general public will all find it a remarkably revealing read

The Treatment of War Wounds William Williams Keen,1917 It is and has been my feeling of course that this and many other early estimates of the Carrel Dakin method were over enthusiastic As early as 1918 I felt that the Carrel Dakin method involved too much disturbance of splints and casts in compound fractures and by 1921 I had declared against this and all other frequent dressing methods in wound infection H W Orr The Early Treatments of War Wounds... H.
