Way To Live Christian Practices For Teens:

Way to Live Dorothy C. Bass,Don C. Richter,2002 Written by a team of adults and teens Way to Live discusses concrete ways youth can practice Christianity in everyday life This book answers teens yearning for a meaningful way of life by inviting them into an abundant way of life Jesus offers and challenging them to join others in practicing their faith Through teen friendly language and relevant examples Way to Live uses stories and ideas that make Christian practice come alive Practices such as forgiveness work play stuff justice prayer food and time are discussed as ways to nourish a more meaningful life offered by Jesus Christ 18 teens and 18 adults joined together to write Way to Live Their collective wisdom and experience offers things that readers can do rather than things not to do It also presents each practice as a gift and not a task that engages readers in the real world Great for youth ministry and small group study Way to Live is perfect for individual use too Way to Live Leader's Guide Dorothy C. Bass,Don C. Richter,Lani Wright,Susan Briehl,2002

Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality Karen-Marie Yust,Aostre N. Johnson,Sandy Eisenberg Sasso,Eugene C. Roehlkepartain,2005-12-27 Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality Perspectives from the World s Religious Traditions provides a forum for prominent religious scholars to examine the state of religious knowledge and theological reflection on spiritual development in childhood and adolescence Featuring essays from thinkers representing the world s major religious traditions the book introduces new voices challenges assumptions raises new questions and broadens the base of knowledge and investment in this important domain of life It specifically and intentionally focuses on theological and philosophical perspectives from within religious traditions creating space for the religious traditions to find their voices Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality is firmly grounded in the language and priorities of religious studies and helps stimulate explorations of whether and how religious communities are tapping their own wisdom and strengths in nurturing today s young people in a complex and changing world Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality will set the stage for new waves of scholarship and dialogue within and across traditions disciplines and cultures that will enrich understanding and strengthen how the world s religious traditions and others understand and cultivate the spiritual lives of children and adolescents around the globe The Way of Grace John Indermark,2004 In this fresh approach to the Gospel of John you are invited to travel with 8 biblical characters or groups of characters who discover God s grace through their encounters with Jesus including Andrew Nicodemus the lame man Mary and Martha and others The Way of Grace offers transforming interaction with the biblical events and characters opening our hearts to a deeper understanding of God s grace The Way of Prayer Jane E. Vennard,Stephen D. Bryant,2006 Many Christians have a limited vision of prayer The Way of Prayer a 10 week study offers many forms of prayer to explore and practice both individually and as a group People with various temperaments spiritual types and learning styles will find expressions of prayer that draw them closer to God while learning to integrate body mind and spirit in prayer Choosing Peace Through Daily Practices Ellen Ott Marshall,2005 Choosing Peace through Daily Practice is intended for people who feel both called to and daunted by the vocation of peacemaking How do we live out this calling in a world that seeks peace through violence How do we live out this calling in a society that understands peace as the absence of violence rather than the presence of justice How do we live out this calling in a time when the daily news reinforces the perception that peace is truly untenable The contributors all of whom teach at Claremont School of Theology argue in their essays that we live out this calling by practicing peace in and through our daily devotions work and interaction with others The first set of essays explores the vocation of peacemaking explains practices language and highlights the connection between the processes of peace in the world and peace in the home The remaining chapters describe practices of peacemaking in spiritual life classroom discourse congregational ministry and community interaction

A Song to Sing, A Life to Live Don Saliers,Emily Saliers,2005 Indigo Girl Emily Saliers and her father Don Saliers pen a book on the many dimensions of music in their spiritual lives In this rich exploration of music across many settings and styles the authors reveal their own stories and the importance of music in their lives exploring such topics as music and justice music and grief music and delight and music and hope

Becoming Fire Alexander Levering Kern,2006 Through story and metaphor the 48 authors gathered here address great themes in the spiritual life prayer and desire covenant and grace creativity and calling identity and freedom Trouble Don't Last Always Evelyn L. Parker,2003 African American adolescent spirituality and a framework for ministry in the face of injustice and hopelessness

Integration of Christian Practices Daniel J. O'Hanlon,1984 Doing Girlfriend Theology Dori Grinenko Baker,2005 Girlfriend Theology is a model of religious education that helps nurture voice and authentic spirituality in girls and women It is one way for the spiritual hunger passion and curiosity of today s adolescent girls to connect with the beliefs and practices of the generations of faithful women who came before them It provides a healthy faith based antidote to the dangers many girls face as they approach adulthood The author introduces this ground breaking method and shows how to set up a Girlfriend Theology group discern themes within the stories the girls tell ask or prompt theological questions and adapt the information of the book to groups other than girls Leaders of retreats and small groups will find this to be a valuable resource

Children's Voices Annemie Dillen,Didier Pollefeyt,2010 This book deals with themes concerning religious education and the spirituality of children

Throughout the seventeen chapters the book stimulates a scholarly discussion about children and theology The book makes clear that classical Christian theology can benefit from taking seriously children s voices and reflections about children The volume demonstrates how nuanced and interdisciplinary reflections can be relevant for Christian and social practices of adults with children and how these practices can influence theology This volume asks the following questions Why is it important that we hear the voices of children and what does this mean for how we treat children and relate to them What do the voices of children express How do children experience society and in particular religion and what do they have to say about it What do the voices of children mean for theology ethics and religious education In what way can our theology change when we see reality from the perspective of children This book consists of five parts In the first part the reader receives an overview of the current challenges concerning children and spirituality The two chapters of this part offer an introduction to contemporary thinking about children theology and spirituality and the place of children s voices within this scope The second part refers to biblical sources for contemporary theological reflection on children The third part contains pedagogical and ethical reflections on children as well as a view from practical theology about children in the world and the responsibility of churches This third part looks mainly at children in relation to society both in the past and in the present The fourth part focuses on children living in the family which is seen as a domestic church The fifth part takes up the theme of children s spirituality again showing children s own spiritual reflection and ways of theologizing with children in church and family contexts by communication literature and all forms of religious education and or catechesis
