Desperately Seeking Solutions Kathy Paterson, 2009 A practical look at hands on problem solving including a 5 step plan for handling almost any situation The American Journal of Psychology Granville Stanley Hall, Edward Bradford Titchener, Karl M. Dallenbach, Madison Bentley, Edwin Garrigues Boring, Margaret Floy Washburn, 1910 Pseudoscience in Therapy Stephen Hupp, Cara L. Santa Maria, 2023-03-23 When experiencing mental health challenges we all deserve treatments that actually work Whether you are a healthcare consumer student or mental health professional this book will help you recognize implausible ineffective and even harmful therapy practices while also considering recent controversies Research supported interventions are identified in this book and expanded upon in a companion volume Chapters cover every major mental disorder and are written by experts in their respective fields Pseudoscience in Therapy is of interest to students taking courses in psychotherapy counseling clinical psychology and behavior therapy as well as practitioners looking for a guide to proven therapeutic techniques Crossing the Psycho-Social Divide George Cavalletto, 2016-07-22 The prevailing view among social scientists is that the psyche and the social reside in such disparate domains that their proper study demands markedly incompatible analytical and theoretical approaches Over the last decade scholars have begun to challenge this view In this innovative work George Cavalletto moves this challenge forward by connecting it to theoretical and analytical practices of the early 20th century His analysis of key texts by Sigmund Freud Max Weber Theodor Adorno and Norbert Elias shows that they crossed the psycho social divide in ways that can help contemporary scholars to re establish an analytical and theoretical understanding of the inherent interconnection of these two domains This book will particularly interest scholars and students in sociology and social psychology especially those in the fields of social theory the sociology of emotion self and society and historical sociology Counseling for Artists, Performers, and Other Creative Individuals Olga E. Gonithellis, 2018-04-20 Informed by clinical case studies scientific research and relevant theories Counseling for Artists Performers and Other Creative Individuals takes an in depth look at the ways creative traits the arts and entertainment industries and mental health interact This hands on guide examines many of the issues that afflict creative populations such as performance anxiety psychiatric disorders and occupational stress with a nuanced understanding of the roles that creativity and the arts play in the lives of these individuals Each chapter provides examples of specific goals and interventions for clinical practice including additional space for clinicians to write down ideas tailored to their clients unique needs This is essential reading for practitioners looking to treat creative clients psychological difficulties with insight and sensitivity A Mental Healthcare Model for Mass Trauma Survivors Metin Basoglu, Ebru Salscioglu, 2011-03-03 Mass trauma events such as natural disasters war and torture affect millions of people every year Currently there is no mental health care model with the potential to address the psychological needs of survivors in a cost effective way This book presents such a model along with guidance on its implementation making it invaluable for both policy makers and mental health professionals Building on more than twenty years of extensive research with mass trauma survivors the authors present a model of traumatic stress to aid understanding of mass trauma and how its psychological impact can be overcome with control focused behavioral treatment This text offers a critical review of various controversial issues in the field of psychological trauma in light of recent research findings Including two structured manuals on earthquake trauma covering treatment delivery and self help the book will be of use to survivors themselves as well as care providers
