Process Philosophy and Political Liberalism Dombrowski Daniel A.

Dombrowski, 2019-05-03 Daniel A Dombrowski brings together the thought of the 20th century philosophy's greatest political liberal John Rawls with the thought of the great process philosophers Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne. He shows that political liberalism is intimately linked with process philosophy renaming it process liberalism. He justifies this process liberalism in contrast to four potentially troublesome sources or influences metaphysics religion right wing politics and left wing politics. Dombrowski engages a series of interlocutors and alternative positions including Franklin I Gamwell Timothy D Snyder Martin Heidegger and Karl Marx. In conclusion he offers a compelling intricate and resourceful argument for nonhuman animal rights based on Rawlsian principles which in turn forms the basis of a future environmental ethics.
