Water Come Down Day You Were Baptized:

Water, Come Down! Walter Wangerin, 1999 Sun cloud rain wind water and the whole of creation join family and friends in celebrating the baptism of a child of God Living Water, Klara Tammany is a professional Christian educator who goes about her calling with a joyous urgency This book demonstrates her impassioned approach to religious instruction She starts with the premise that ongoing Christian education must be central to a life of faith and then proceeds from the corollary that baptism must be central to all Christian education Eight group sessions focus repeatedly on water first as a natural element necessary to life then as a symbolic element necessary to spirituality Gradually through prayer song scripture silence poetry visual arts storytelling group discussion and personal reflection water as baptismal element gains ascendancy No longer mere occasional refreshment Living Water inundates becomes life's very medium This text makes for excellent catechumenal preparation but is intended for use by all Christians those who are years into their journeys as well as those who are beginning Designed for small groups of adult Episcopalians the program is easily adaptable to other denominations to one on one spiritual mentoring to children young adult or intergenerational groups and even to individuals for private meditation

Preparing for Baptism in the Episcopal Church Anne E. Kitch, 2015-07-01 A primer or refresher on the sacrament of Baptism for new parents new members and godparents This book is about preparing for Christian baptism in the Episcopal Church While we may hear people say I was baptized a Methodist or I was baptized Catholic or I was baptized Episcopalian people are not baptized into a denomination they are baptized into the Christian faith While various Christian denominations differ both their theology of baptism as it is understood and practiced in the Episcopal Church following the rite found in the Book of Common Prayer 1979 This short book is full of helpful information solid history sound theology and thoughtful reflection It is the perfect book to give to adults or to parents of young children seeking baptism through the Episcopal Church I am happy that I will be able to offer this book to my students for their future use when guiding baptismal candidates A truly welcome resource The Reverend Dr Nathan Jennings associate professor of liturgics and Anglican studies Seminary of the Southwest Liturgy for the Whole Church Susan K. Bock, 2008-08-01 This fresh collection of group readings and simple dramas based on stories from Scripture together with meditations story telling methodology and an instructed Eucharist will help church leaders design liturgy for children and grownups who worship together School edition teacher guide

Gerard F. Baumbach, 2004 Wade in the Water Eric E. Peterson, 2018-05-02 Whether or not we are aware of it everyone is being baptized While the church baptizes people in the name of the Father Son and Holy Spirit the culture in which we live is baptizing us into the trinitarian values of consumption production and acquisition The respective baptism we choose to immerse ourselves in is consequential for the type of people we are becoming Wade In the Water alerts us to the presence of these formative forces so that we can choose the sacred ways that form us in the Jesus Way Baptismōn didachē: or, The doctrine of baptisms.
