Valentin Weigel Valentin Weigel, 2003 Offered here for the first time in English is a selection of the most important and characteristic works of Valentin Weigel 1533-88 Readers will find in this volume an introduction to the life times and writings of Weigel a German teacher and theologian who articulated a variant of the Protestant Reformation known as Spiritualism a form of dissent emphasizing spiritual or inner independence from rules ceremonies and the visible or organized church Together these works present the heart of this reformer's thought which championed tolerance and individual conscience in an age of confessional hatred and religious war Weigel's writings are Spiritualist theory at its most accurate They complete a missing chapter in the history of mystical literature Book jacket Aurora (Morgen Rote im aufgang, 1612) and Fundamental Report (Gründlicher Bericht, Mysterium Pansophicum, 1620) Andrew Weeks, 2013-11-29 Jacob Boehme's Aurora Morgen Rote im aufgang 1612 exercised a vast open or underground influence on popular and mystical religion poetry and philosophy from Germany to England to Russia This beautiful and highly original work containing elements of alchemical esoteric and anticlerical thought is a portal to the cultural scientific and theological currents on the eve of the Thirty Years War Its author heralded the new heliocentrism opposed intolerance and religious conflict and entertained an ecstatic vision of order reconciled with freedom This first modern English translation places the translated text opposite an edition of the German manuscript from the author's own hand Also included is the brief influential Fundamental Report Gründlicher Bericht 1620 in a critical edition and translation An extensive commentary that cites documents of the time offers access to the sources of Boehme's themes and concepts Seventeenth-century Lutheran Meditations and Hymns Eric Lund, 2011 A specialist in seventeenth century Germany piety and devotional writings presents new translations of the prose works and hymnody from the century following the start of the Protestant Reformation The Alchemical Virgin Mary in the Religious and Political Context of the Renaissance Urszula Szulakowska, 2017-05-11 This study explores the survival of Roman Catholic doctrine and visual imagery in the alchemical treatises composed by members of the Lutheran and Anglican confessions during the Renaissance and Early Modern periods It discusses the reasons for such unexpected confessional survivals in a time of extreme Protestant iconoclasm and religious reform The book presents an analysis of the manner in which Catholic doctrines concerning the Virgin Mary the Holy Trinity and the Eucharist were an essential factor in the development of alchemical theory and illustration from the medieval period to the seventeenth century The role of the Joachimites radical members of the Franciscan Order in the history of alchemy is an important issue The Apocalypse of St John the Book of Revelation and other scriptural texts and specifically Roman Catholic Marian devotions are also considered regarding their influences on late medieval alchemy and on the sixteenth and seventeenth century alchemical literature composed by Protestants Additional issues explored here include the role played by alchemy in strengthening the leaders of the European defence against the invading Ottoman Turks as well as the importance of the figure of the Virgin Mary as the

Apocalyptic Woman in the same cause Special consideration is given to the role played by the apocalyptic Mary within alchemical texts and pictures as an emblem of the mercurial quintessence and also in her form as the Bride of the scriptural Wisdom books which also entered alchemical discourse Additional issues discussed in this book include the little regarded problem of confessional alchemy namely whether there were distinct Protestant and Roman Catholic types of alchemy The treatises under consideration include the Buch der Heiligen Dreifaltigkeit 1419 1433 the Rosarium Philosophorum 1550 Reusner s Pandora 1582 1588 and the Pandora of Faustus 1706 as well as the work of Michael Maier Robert Fludd Johann Daniel Mylius Jacob Boehme and pseudo Nicolas Flamel among many others Their works are contextualised within the religious reforms instigated by Martin Luther as well as within the unorthodox radical theology devised by Paracelsus and his alchemical followers The Marian theology of Paracelsus is also of particular interest here

Mental Health, Spirituality, and Religion in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen, 2014-07-28 This volume continues the critical exploration of fundamental issues in the medieval and early modern world here concerning mental health spirituality melancholy mystical visions medicine and well being The contributors who originally had presented their research at a symposium at The University of Arizona in May 2013 explore a wide range of approaches and materials pertinent to these issues taking us from the early Middle Ages to the eighteenth century capping the volume with some reflections on the relevance of religion today Lapidary sciences matter here as much as medical psychological research combined with literary and art historical approaches The premodern understanding of mental health is not taken as a miraculous panacea for modern problems but the contributors suggest that medieval and early modern writers scientists and artists commanded a considerable amount of arcane sometimes curious and speculative knowledge that promises to be of value and relevance even for us today once again Modern palliative medicine finds for instance intriguing parallels in medieval word magic and the mystical perspectives encapsulated highly productive alternative perceptions of the macrocosm and microcosm that promise to be insightful and important also for the post modern world

The Radical Enlightenment in Germany, 2018-07-03 This volume investigates the impact of the Radical Enlightenment on German culture during the eighteenth century taking recent work by Jonathan Israel as its point of departure The collection documents the cultural dimension of the debate on the Radical Enlightenment In a series of readings of known and lesser known fictional and essayistic texts individual contributors show that these can be read not only as articulating a conflict between Enlightenment and Counter Enlightenment but also as documents of a debate about the precise nature of Enlightenment At stake is the question whether the Enlightenment should aim to be an atheist materialist and political movement that wants to change society or in spite of its belief in rationality should respect monarchy aristocracy and established religion Contributors are Mary Helen Dupree Sean Franzel Peter H yng John A McCarthy Monika Nenon Carl Niekerk Daniel Purdy William Rasch Ann Schmiesing Paul S Spalding Gabriela Stoicea Birgit Tautz Andrew Weeks Chunjie Zhang
