Postfeminism and Contemporary Vampire Romance Lea Gerhards, 2022-05-19 In this book, Lea Gerhards traces connections between three recent vampire romance series: the Twilight film series (2008-2012), The Vampire Diaries (2009-2017), and True Blood (2008-2014), exploring their tremendous discursive and ideological power in order to understand the cultural politics of these extremely popular texts. She uses contemporary vampire romance to examine postfeminist ideologies and discuss gender, sexuality, subjectivity, agency, and the body. Discussing a range of conflicting meanings contained in the narratives, Gerhards critically looks at genre's engagement with everyday sexism and violence against women, power relations in heterosexual relationships, sexual autonomy and pleasure, self-empowerment and self-surveillance. She asks: Why are these genre texts so popular right now? What specific desires, issues, and fears are addressed and negotiated by them, and what kinds of pleasures do they offer?

The Twilight of the Gothic? Joseph Crawford, 2014-05-15 This book explores the history of the paranormal romance genre from its origins in the revisionist horror fiction of the 1970s via its emergence as a minor sub-genre of romantic fiction in the early 1990s to its contemporary expansion in recent years into an often controversial genre of mainstream fiction. Tracing the genre from its roots in older Gothic fiction written by and for women, it explores the interconnected histories of Gothic and romantic fiction from Ann Radcliffe and Jane Austen in the eighteenth century to Buffy, Twilight, True Blood, and The Vampire Diaries in the present day. In doing so, it investigates the extent to which the post-Twilight paranormal romance really does represent a break from older traditions of Gothic fiction and just what it is about the genre that has made it so extraordinarily divisive, captivating millions of readers whilst simultaneously infuriating and repelling so many others.
